Third Sunday After Epiphany

GOSPEL Matt 8:1-13 At that time, when Jesus had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him: And behold a leper came and adored Him, saying: "Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean." And Jesus stretching forth His hand, touched him, saying: "I will, be thou made clean." And forthwith his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus said to him: "See thou tell no man: but go, show thyself to the priest, and offer the gift which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them." And when He had entered into Capharnaum, there came to Him a centurion, beseeching Him, and saying, "Lord, my servant lies at home sick of the palsy, and is grievously tormented." And Jesus said to him: "I will come and heal him." And the centurion, making answer, said: "Lord, I am not worthy that thou should enter under my roof; but only say the word, and my servant shall be healed. For I also am a man subject to authority, having under me soldiers; and I say to this, Go, and he goes, and to another Come, and he comes, and to my servant, do this, and he does it." And Jesus hearing this, marveled; and said to them that followed Him. "Amen I say to you, I have not found so great faith in Israel. And I say to you that many shall come from the east and the west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven: But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into the exterior darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." And Jesus said to the centurion: "Go, and as thou hast believed, so be it done to thee." And the servant was healed at the same hour.

St. John Bosco (Giovanni Melchiorre Bosco; 16 August 1815 – 31 January 1888), popularly known as Don Bosco was an Italian Roman Catholic priest, educator and writer of the 19th century. He was born in the hillside hamlet of Becchi, Italy, the youngest of three boys. John Bosco was born into a time of great shortage and famine following the devastation wrought by the Napoleonic wars and a drought in 1817.

When he was two years old his father died, leaving the support of three boys to his mother. She played a strong role in Bosco's formation and personality and was an early supporter of her son's ideals.

In 1825, when he was 9, Bosco had the first of a series of dreams which would play an influential role in his outlook and work. This first dream left a profound impression on him for the rest of his life. Bosco saw a multitude of very poor boys who play and blaspheme, and a man, who appeared, nobly attired. The man said to him: "You will have to win these friends of yours not with blows, but with gentleness and kindness. So, begin right now to show them that sin is ugly and virtue beautiful."

On a cold morning in February 1827, at age 12, John left his home and went to look for work as a farm-servant. Having to face life by himself at such a young age may have developed his later sympathies to help abandoned boys. Although Bosco could pursue some studies by himself, he was not able to attend school for two more years. In 1830 he met Joseph Cafasso, a young priest who identified some natural talent and supported his first schooling. In 1835 Bosco entered the seminary. After six years of study, he was ordained a priest on the eve of Trinity Sunday in Turin in 1841.

While working in Turin, where the population suffered many of the effects of industrialization and urbanization, he dedicated his life to the betterment and education of street children, juvenile delinquents, and other disadvantaged youth. He developed teaching methods based on love rather than punishment, a method that became known as the Salesian Preventive System.

A follower of the spirituality and philosophy of Saint Francis de Sales, Bosco was an ardent Marian devotee of the Blessed Virgin Mary under the title Mary Help of Christians. He later dedicated his works to De Sales when he founded the Salesians of Don Bosco. Together with Maria Domenica Mazzarello, he founded the Institute of the Daughters of Mary Help of Christians, a religious congregation of nuns dedicated to the care and education of poor girls. He taught Dominic Savio, of whom he wrote a biography that helped the young boy be canonized.

In 1875, he began to publish the Salesian Bulletin. The Bulletin has remained in continuous publication and is currently published in 50 different editions and 30 languages. Bosco died on 31 January 1888. His funeral was attended by thousands. Following his beatification in 1929, he was canonized as a saint by Pope Pius XI in 1934.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

BAPTISM OF BLOOD (BOB) AND BAPTISM OF DESIRE (BOD) III

We continue the discussion of Baptism of Desire and Baptism of Blood, by additional quotes from the Fathers and Doctors of the Church.

St. Augustine, one of the greatest Doctors of the Church:

“Those who die for the confession of Christ without having received the laver of regeneration (baptism), are released thereby from their sins just as much as if they had been cleansed by the sacred spring of baptism. For he who said. ‘Unless a man be born again of water and the Holy Ghost, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God,’ (John 3:5) by another statement made exceptions to this when He said no less comprehensively: ‘Everyone...that shall confess me before men, I will confess before my Father who is in heaven.’ (Matthew 10.32).”

St. Thomas Aquinas whose authority in matters of theology goes largely undisputed:

...baptism of water has its efficacy from Christ's passion, to which a man is conformed by baptism, and also from the Holy Ghost as first cause. Now although the effect depends on the first cause, the cause far surpasses the effect, nor does it depend on it. Consequently, a man may, without baptism of water, receive the sacramental effect from Christ's passion, in so far as he is conformed to Christ by suffering for Him. Hence it is written (Apocalypse 7:14): ‘these are they who are come out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.’ In like manner a man receives the effect of baptism by the power of the Holy Ghost, not only without baptism of water, but also without baptism of blood; forasmuch as his heart is moved by the Holy Ghost to believe in and love God and to repent of his sins; wherefore this is also called the baptism of repentance... Thus, these other baptisms are called baptism, forasmuch as it takes the place of baptism.”

St. Bonaventure, also a Doctor of the Church:

“There are three distinct forms of Baptism, namely that of fire, that of water and that of blood. Baptism of fire is that provided by repentance and the grace of the Holy Spirit and purifies from sin. In Baptism of water, we are both purified from sin and absolved of all temporal punishment due to sin. In baptism of blood, we are purified from all misery.”

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Safreed before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
