Third Sunday After Epiphany

GOSPEL Matt 8:1-13 At that time, when Jesus had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him: And behold a leper came and adored Him, saying: "Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean." And Jesus stretching forth His hand, touched him, saying: "I will, be thou made clean." And forthwith his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus said to him: "See thou tell no man: but go, show thyself to the priest, and offer the gift which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them." And when He had entered into Capharnaum, there came to Him a centurion, beseeching Him, and saying, "Lord, my servant lies at home sick of the palsy, and is grievously tormented." And Jesus said to him: "I will come and heal him." And the centurion, making answer, said: "Lord, I am not worthy that thou should enter under my roof; but only say the word, and my servant shall be healed. For I also am a man subject to authority, having under me soldiers; and I say to this, Go, and he goes, and to another Come, and he comes, and to my servant, do this, and he does it." And Jesus hearing this, marveled; and said to them that followed Him. "Amen I say to you, I have not found so great faith in Israel. And I say to you that many shall come from the east and the west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven: But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into the exterior darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." And Jesus said to the centurion: "Go, and as thou hast believed, so be it done to thee." And the servant was healed at the same hour.

St. John Bosco (Giovanni Melchiorre Bosco; 16 August 1815 – 31 January 1888), popularly known as Don Bosco was an Italian Roman Catholic priest, educator and writer of the 19th century. He was born in the hillside hamlet of Becchi, Italy, the youngest of three boys. John Bosco was born into a time of great shortage and famine following the devastation wrought by the Napoleonic wars and a drought in 1817.

When he was two years old his father died, leaving the support of three boys to his mother. She played a strong role in Bosco's formation and personality and was an early supporter of her son's ideals.

In 1825, when he was 9, Bosco had the first of a series of dreams which would play an influential role in his outlook and work. This first dream left a profound impression on him for the rest of his life. Bosco saw a multitude of very poor boys who play and blaspheme, and a man, who appeared, nobly attired. The man said to him: "You will have to win these friends of yours not with blows, but with gentleness and kindness. So, begin right now to show them that sin is ugly and virtue beautiful."

On a cold morning in February 1827, at age 12, John left his home and went to look for work as a farm-servant. Having to face life by himself at such a young age may have developed his later sympathies to help abandoned boys. Although Bosco could pursue some studies by himself, he was not able to attend school for two more years. In 1830 he met Joseph Cafasso, a young priest who identified some natural talent and supported his first schooling. In 1835 Bosco entered the seminary. After six years of study, he was ordained a priest on the eve of Trinity Sunday in Turin in 1841.

While working in Turin, where the population suffered many of the effects of industrialization and urbanization, he dedicated his life to the betterment and education of street children, juvenile delinquents, and other disadvantaged youth. He developed teaching methods based on love rather than punishment, a method that became known as the Salesian Preventive System.

A follower of the spirituality and philosophy of Saint Francis de Sales, Bosco was an ardent Marian devotee of the Blessed Virgin Mary under the title Mary Help of Christians. He later dedicated his works to De Sales when he founded the Salesians of Don Bosco. Together with Maria Domenica Mazzarello, he founded the Institute of the Daughters of Mary Help of Christians, a religious congregation of nuns dedicated to the care and education of poor girls. He taught Dominic Savio, of whom he wrote a biography that helped the young boy be canonized.

In 1875, he began to publish the Salesian Bulletin. The Bulletin has remained in continuous publication and is currently published in 50 different editions and 30 languages. Bosco died on 31 January 1888. His funeral was attended by thousands. Following his beatification in 1929, he was canonized as a saint by Pope Pius XI in 1934.

Simeon's prophecy

Unlike pagan religions which see time as an endless cycle, Christians see time as being linear; it has a beginning and will have an end. But within Christianity's linear, "big picture" sense of time, the passing of hours is experienced as cycles of meditations on holy things. Think of a spiral -- of a circle of time moving ever forward toward His Coming -- and you will have a sense of "Catholic time."

The traditional Catholic year (the "liturgical year") is made special by cycles of celebrations commemorating the lives of Jesus and His mother, the angels, and the legion of Saints who modelled lives of sanctity. Below are 25 Feasts and times, in chronological order, that demonstrate how the liturgical year is a reliving of the life of Christ:

Advent	He is coming
Nativity	He comes
Circumcision	He follows Old Testament Law
Epiphany	He reveals Himself as God
Holy Family	He grows up in a human family
Candlemas	Simeon's prophecy
Septuagesima	We are in exile without Christ
Ash Wednesday	Without Christ, we are dust
Lent	Christ is in the Desert
Passion Sunday	Jews make plans to kill Jesus
7 Sorrows	Mary suffers at what is to come
Palm Sunday	He triumphantly enters Jerusalem
Spy Wednesday	Jesus is betrayed by Judas
Maundy Thursday	He offers the first Holy Mass
Good Friday	He is put to death and fulfills Old Testament Law
Holy Saturday	He is in the tomb
Easter	He is risen
Ascension	He ascends into Heaven
Pentecost	He sends the Holy Ghost
Trinity Sunday	The Most Holy Trinity has been fully revealed
Assumption	Mary is assumed into Heaven & crowned Queen
Christ the King	We recognize Christ's Kingship now and forever
All Saints	We will triumph as have our heroic Saints
All Souls	We pray for those who are awaiting their triumph
Last Sunday in Time after Pentecost	Apocalypse. He will come to judge the world.

Every single year, aware Catholics "re-live" the Gospel, from Christ's Incarnation and Birth to His Ascension and Heavenly reign. In Spring He enters the world by coming to rest in Mary's immaculate womb; nine months later, in Winter, He is born, circumcized, and given a Name. He is raised in the Holy Family, and meets His cousin, John. He goes into the Desert and we go with Him during our Lenten Season. Then follow His Passion and Agony, which are soon vanquished by His Resurrection, His Ascension, and the Pentecost. Now He reigns forever, and we await His Second Coming as we prepare to celebrate again His First Coming. Then the cycle begins again, like a wheel that's been spinning for two millennia. The Catholic who is aware of this wheel is necessarily aware of Christ; the Catholic who also celebrates the Feasts well and practices the traditions of the Church lives intimately with Him.

COVID-19 Virus: At this time, with regard to the Coronavirus event, we are not making any changes in the availability of sacraments or the schedule of mass. However, in an abundance of caution, we are asking all parishioners to make decisions that are prudent for their situation. Elderly parishioners are particularly at risk and are excused from their Sunday obligations. Any parishioners that feel uncomfortable are excused as well. As always, if you are exhibiting any signs of sickness or feel unwell, please be considerate of your fellow parishioners and do not attend mass or any chapel functions. Thank you for your understanding in these trying times. Please stay well and may God bless you.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
