Quinquagesima Sunday

GOSPEL Luke 18:31-43 At that time, Jesus took unto Him the twelve and said to them: "Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and all things shall be accomplished which were written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man. For He shall be delivered to the Gentiles and shall be mocked and scourged and spit upon. And after they have scourged Him, they will put Him to death. And the third day He shall rise again."

And they understood none of these things and this word was hidden from them, and they understood not the things that were said. Now it came to pass, when He drew nigh to Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the wayside, begging. And when he heard the multitude passing by, he asked what this meant. And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. And he cried out, saying: "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me."

And they that went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried out much more: "Son of David, have mercy on me."

And Jesus standing, commanded him to be brought unto Him. And when he was come near, He asked him, saying; "What wilt thou that I do to thee?" But he said: "Lord, that I may see." And Jesus said to him: "Receive thy sight: thy faith hath made thee whole." And immediately he saw and followed Him, glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

St. Matthias (died c. 80 AD) was one of the seventy disciples of Jesus and had been with Him from His baptism by John to the Ascension. He was, according to the Acts of the Apostles, the apostle chosen by lot to replace Judas Iscariot following Judas' betrayal of Jesus and his subsequent death. His calling as an apostle is unique, in that his appointment was not made personally by Jesus, who had already ascended into heaven, and it was also made before the descent of the Holy Ghost upon the early Church.

It is generally believed that Matthias ministered in Judaea and then carried out missions to foreign places. Greek tradition states that he Christianized Cappadocia, a mountainous district now in central Turkey, later journeying to the region about the Caspian Sea, where he was martyred by crucifixion and, according to other legends, chopped apart. His symbol, related to his alleged martyrdom, is either a cross or a halberd. Alternatively, another tradition maintains that Matthias was stoned at Jerusalem by the Jews, and then beheaded. St. Helena, mother of the Roman emperor Constantine the Great, reputedly transported Matthias' relics from Jerusalem to Rome.

He is the patron saint of carpenters; tailors; alcoholics; hope; perseverance.

The feast of Saint Matthias was included in the Roman Calendar in the 11th century and celebrated on February 24th.

12 Traditional Catholic - Lenten Practices

On Ash Wednesday, all over the world, traditional Catholics are going to be praying and fasting. It is a powerful day to ask for God's forgiveness and for the salvation of Souls. All of us need to pray for unity and purity of Catholic dogma. We also want to repent of individual and collective sins that are destroying the Mystical Body of Christ.

Here are some suggestions of what we can do for Lent:

- 1) Do a very humble and sorrowful confession. Take the time to go over a very good examination of conscience and write down your sins so as to not forget them. Often, we get nervous in the confessional and can forget them. Stating how many times and when was the last time you committed the sins. This helps the confessor to give you the right penance and to help you root out these vices. Especially be sorrowful for sacrilegious sins such as; received Holy Communion with a mortal sin on your soul.
- 2) Holy Mass every day. It takes a lot of discipline to get up early to go to Holy Mass, but the fruits are well worth it. There is no greater prayer than the prayer of Jesus to the Father through the Holy Ghost during the Holy Mass in which we participate.
- 3) Pray the Holy Rosary. Meditate prayerfully on the Passion of Jesus (Sorrowful Mysteries) every day during lent. It would be even more effective, if the whole family prays it together. Try to put your heart into the words and meditations on the passion.
- 4) Read the Bible. Read and meditate on all that led up to the passion and crucifixion of Jesus. Each Gospel depicts the passion and crucifixion a little differently.
- 5) Pray the Stations of the Cross. Take yourself back in time to the Holy Land, retracing the steps of Jesus on His way to Calvary. Every Wednesday during Lent after the 9:00 AM Mass. Also, on Fridays during Lent, there will be Stations of the Cross and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament starting at 7:00 PM.
- 6) Read a traditional Catholic book. Like the "Imitation of Christ" or "The Secret of the Rosary", to encourage and inspire you to be happier and holier.
- 7) Make time for heart felt prayer. This is best done in front of the Blessed Sacrament. If for some reason you cannot go to a church, pray at home facing where ever the closest Tabernacle is. Then have faith that God has heard your prayers.
- 8) Disconnect from social media. Fast from Facebook, blogs and use your Cell Phone and computer, to the absolute minimum. We need to be connected to God instead, not the internet and the cell phone. Help your children to not use video games and electronic devices at all. If you haven't already disconnected cable and TV antennas, lent is the perfect time to do this. There is no good left on TV.
- 9) Stop watching the news. Instead use this time to pray for the world governments. What good does it do us to be depressed over all the evil things going on in the world that we have no control over? This time can be much better used to love and communicate with our families and make our home a happier world where they can see the difference. Take time to communicate with each other and love each other more.
- 10) Fast by eating healthy and as a family. Make a firm promise to absolutely not buy any fast food. Sacrifice time to make delicious healthy homemade meals that everyone can enjoy. Stay away from desserts and sodas.
- 11) Forgive and Pray for those who have hurt you. Forgive everything from the past, once and forever. Holding on to pain from our childhood, our parish, our spouses, does more harm to our spiritual life than you can imagine. "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us", "Love your enemy", "Pray for those who persecute you", says Jesus. Pray for all those who are destroying Catholic doctrine and liturgy too.
- 12) Stop taking the Salvation of The World on your shoulders. Jesus is the savior of the world. We are just to help those with whom we have influence. And let us not forget, salvation starts with our own souls and family. Every time you get depressed about the pope, bishops, priests, religious and laity, get down on our knees and pray about it. Then, give it over to God, Mary and the Saints to take care of it. We are not God. Invite people this lent to attend a Holy Mass at Chapel of the Holy Family. God is still in charge of the Church and the world. We are only His humble servants.

After the 40 days of Lent, hopefully we have spiritually grown and have been renewed by the power of the Holy Ghost. This is the glorious destination we are trying to reach after the 40 days of traveling through the desert of lent.

COVID-19 Virus: At this time, with regard to the Coronavirus event, we are not making any changes in the availability of sacraments or the schedule of mass. However, in an abundance of caution, we are asking all parishioners to make decisions that are prudent for their situation. Elderly parishioners are particularly at risk and are excused from their Sunday obligations. Any parishioners that feel uncomfortable are excused as well. As always, if you are exhibiting any signs of sickness or feel unwell, please be considerate of your fellow parishioners and do not attend mass or any chapel functions. Thank you for your understanding in these trying times. Please stay well and may God bless you.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
