Third Sunday in Lent

GOSPEL Luke 11:14-28 At that time, Jesus was casting out a devil: and the same was dumb. And when He had cast out the devil, the dumb spoke: and the multitudes, were in admiration at it. But some of them said: "He cast out devils by Beelzebub, the prince of devils." And others tempting, asked of Him a sign from heaven. But He, seeing their thoughts, said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself shall be brought to desolation; and house upon house shall fall. And if Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? Because you say that through Beelzebub I cast out devils. Now if I cast out devils by Beelzebub, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore, they shall be your judges. But if I by the finger of God cast out devils, doubtless the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed keeps his court, those things are in peace which he possesses. But if a stronger than he come upon him and overcomes him, he will take away all his armor wherein he trusted and will distribute his spoils. He that is not with Me is against Me; and he that gathers not with Me scatters. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walks through places without water, seeking rest: and not finding, he says: I will return into my house whence I came out. And when he is come, he finds it swept and garnished. Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself: and entering in they dwell there. And the last state of that man becomes worse than the first." And it came to pass, as He spoke these things, a certain woman from the crowd, lifting up her voice, said to Him: "Blessed is the womb that bore You and the breasts that nursed You." But He said: "Rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God and keep it."

We are told that angels have many roles. A few of them include being God's messengers and Holy warriors, watching history unfold, praising and worshipping God, and being Guardian Angels – protecting and directing people on God's behalf.

The Bible tells us that God's angels are delivering messages, accompanying the lonely, granting protection and even fighting His battles. Angels who were sent to deliver messages began by saying "Do not be afraid," or "Do not fear."

The Angel Gabriel is a messenger who was entrusted to deliver several important messages on God's behalf. Gabriel appears to at least three people in the Bible: first to the prophet Daniel (Daniel 8:16); next to the priest Zechariah to foretell and announce the miraculous birth of John the Baptist (Luke 1:19); and finally to the virgin Mary to tell her that she would conceive and bear a son (Luke 1:26–38).

Gabriel's name means "God is great," and, as the angel of the annunciation, he is the one who revealed that the Savior was to be called "Jesus" (Luke 1:31)

In all three appearances, Gabriel was met with fear, and he had to begin his conversations with words of comfort and cheer for Daniel, Zechariah, and Mary. It is possible that Gabriel was also the angel that appeared to Joseph in Matthew 1:20, but this is not certain, since that angel is unnamed in Scripture. What we do know is that Gabriel is one of God's good and holy angels. He has a favored position as an angel who "stands in the presence of God" (Luke 1:19), and he was selected to deliver important messages of God's particular love and favor to individuals chosen to be part of God's plan.

The Angel Gabriel or Saint Gabriel's feast day was exclusively celebrated the 18th of March according to many sources dating between the years 1588 and 1921. The feast was included for the first time in the General Roman Calendar in 1921, for celebration on March 24th.

Saint Gabriel is the patron saint of messengers, those who work for broadcasting and telecommunications such as radio and television, postal workers, clerics and diplomats.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

THE APOSTASY II

Depending on who you talk to, the Great Apostasy that St. Paul refers to, began with the Protestant revolt, or more probably with the promulgation of Vatican II on December 8, 1965.

Specifically, my opinion is Luther's revolt was the first stage of future events that have made the faithful shutter and the cosmos shake. The second stage came with the promulgation of the Conciliar document called "Lumen Gentium" by Paul VI on November 21, 1964. It was here that the attempted radical transformation of the Church and its nature occurred. The Catholic Church now "subsists in" the wider Christian body, rather than as Pope Pius XII taught that the Catholic Church IS the Church of Christ. This has always been the universal understanding of the Church. "Subsists in" mirrors the so-called "Branch theory" of the church which became popular in the 19th century. The Branch theory maintains that the Church includes various Christian denominations, whether in formal communion or not. Such an idea has been condemned by true Popes many times.

Karol Wojtyla otherwise known as "Pope" John Paul said in "A Sign of Contradiction," a retreat given to the Papal Household a short time before he became "pope":

"The Church succeeded, during the Second Vatican Council, in redefining her own nature."

Such a statement indicated that the infiltrators finally had their way and their day. This, as has become obvious, meant that not only a union of other "Christian" denominations was to come about, but also an alliance with Pagan religions. The whole thing is incredibly blasphemous but was intended by the powers that be all along. This is the "third stage" by which the world will have fallen into the Great Apostasy.

Such is occurring right now in the world with Bergoglio and his avid promotion of "The Abrahamic Family House" solemnly inaugurated in Abu Dhabi, United Emirates. This includes three separate houses of worship — a mosque, church, and synagogue. According to the official web page of the "Abrahamic Family House," the synagogue is dedicated to the Jewish philosopher Maimonides, who lived in the high middle-ages, the mosque is named after the Grand Imam of Al-Azhar, Ahmed El-Tayeb, with whom Bergoglio signed the "Human Fraternity" declaration. The church, so-called, is supposedly dedicated to St. Francis of Assisi, but is more likely dedicated to Bergoglio, "Pope" Francis who does not seek to convert Muslims as St. Francis himself did.

THE THREE BUILDINGS EACH FORM THE POINT OF A TRIANGLE. Just like on the back of a dollar bill the pyramid signals the "New World Order," these structures announce the New World Religion without creed and certainly without Christ.

- 1) The Protestant revolt; 2) Vatican II; 3) THE ONE WORLD LUCIFERIAN RELIGION. This is Satan's plan which he has executed patiently over hundreds of years— will shortly come to fruition—if it hasn't already.
