Second Sunday in Lent

GOSPEL Matt. 17:1-9 At that time, Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves, and was transfigured before them. And His face shone as the sun: and His garments became white as snow. And behold there appeared to them Moses and Elias talking with Him. Then Peter addressed Jesus, saying, "Lord, it is good for us to be here: if You will, let us make here three tabernacles, one for Thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

And as He was yet speaking, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them. And lo a voice out of the cloud, saying: "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: hear Him." And the disciples hearing fell upon their faces and were very much afraid. And Jesus came and touched them: and said to them: "Arise, and fear not." And lifting up their eyes, saw no one, but only Jesus.

And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus cautioned them, saying: "Tell the vision to no man, till the Son of Man has risen from the dead."

St. Joseph - Everything we know about the husband of Mary and the foster father of Jesus comes from Scripture. We know he was a carpenter, a working man, for the Nazarenes ask about Jesus, "Is this not the carpenter's son?" (Matthew 13:55). He wasn't rich, for when he took Jesus to the Temple to be circumcised and Mary to be purified he offered the sacrifice of two turtledoves or a pair of pigeons, allowed only for those who could not afford a lamb (Luke 2:24).

Despite his humble work and means, Joseph came from a royal lineage as a descendent of David, the greatest king of Israel (Matthew 1:1-16 and Luke 3:23-38). Indeed, the angel who first tells Joseph about Jesus greets him as "son of David," a royal title used also for Jesus.

We know Joseph was a compassionate, caring man. When he discovered Mary was pregnant after they had been betrothed, he knew the child was not his but was as yet unaware that she was carrying the Son of God. He knew women accused of adultery could be stoned to death, so he resolved to send her away quietly to not expose her to shame or cruelty. However, when an angel came to Joseph in a dream and told him, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Ghost. She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins," he did as the angel told him and took Mary as his wife. (Matthew 1:19-25).

Since Joseph does not appear in Jesus' public life, at his death, or resurrection, many historians believe Joseph probably had died before Jesus entered public ministry. According to the Catholic Encyclopedia, the Apocryphal Date for Joseph's birth is 90 BC in Bethlehem and the Apocryphal Date of his death is July 20, AD 18 in Nazareth.

Joseph is the patron saint of the dying because, assuming he died before Jesus' public life, he died with Jesus and Mary close to him, the way we all would like to leave this earth. Joseph is also patron saint of the Universal Church, families, fathers, expectant mothers, travelers, immigrants, house sellers and buyers, craftsmen, engineers, and working people in general.

We celebrate two feast days for Joseph: March 19th for Joseph the Husband of Mary and May 1st for Joseph the Worker. March 19th has been the most commonly celebrated feast day, and it wasn't until 1955 that Pope Pius XII established the Feast of "St. Joseph the Worker" to be celebrated on May 1st. This is also May Day (International Workers' Day) and believed to reflect Joseph's status as the patron of workers.

Many places and churches all over the world are named after St. Joseph, including the Spanish form, San Jose, which is the most commonly named place in the world. Joseph is considered by many to also be the patron saint of the New World.

In art, Joseph is typically portrayed as an older man, with grey hair and a beard, often balding, sometimes appearing frail and a marginal figure next to Mary and Jesus, if not entirely in the background. Some statues of Joseph show his staff topped with flowers. St. Joseph is shown with the attributes of a carpenter's square or tools, the infant Jesus, his lily blossomed staff, two turtle doves, or a spikenard.

There is much we still wish we could know about Joseph -- exactly where and when he was born, how he spent his days, exactly when and how he died. But Scripture has left us with the most important knowledge of who he was -- "a righteous man" (Matthew 1:18).

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

THE APOSTASY I

St. Paul in his 2nd letter to the Thessalonians states the following:

Let no man deceive you by any means, for unless there come a revolt first, [apostasy in Greek] and the man of sin revealed, the son of perdition... whose coming is according to the working of Satan, in all power, and signs and lying wonders...and in all seduction of iniquity to them that perish, because they receive not the truth, that they might be saved. Therefore, God shall send them the operation of error, to believe lying...

The "operation of error" must come, and the vast majority of mankind will be absorbed into it. This is a frightening situation indeed, for to be caught up in this phenomenon will lead to the damnation of many souls.

As traditional Catholics we know that there is only one true religion, which many saints and martyrs died for over the 2000 years of our sacred history. This is being put to the test mightily in ways different than the bloody situations that existed in ancient times.

On Feb. 16, 2023, the so-called "Abrahamic Family House" was solemnly inaugurated in Abu Dhabi, United Emirates. A pronouncement called the "Document on Human Fraternity" was signed by "Pope" Bergoglio along with the Moslem imam Ahmad AI-Tayyib in Abu Dhabi on Feb. 4, 2019.

According to this document GOD POSITIVELY WILLS THAT THERE BE A DIVERSITY OF RELIGIONS WHICH MANIFESTS HIS WISDOM. It is hard to imagine something more blasphemous than such a statement. This wickedness accentuates when a supposed "pope" as a major player officially signs such a document with a smile on his face. Such is of Antichrist, such is apostasy, and whether people understand this or not, Bergoglio's "faithful" in the Novus Ordo have signed onto this travesty too. So too the Recognize & Resist people who have never officially severed themselves from the false pope. Where he goes, they must go, whether they want to go there or not. He is their pope, after all!

Bergoglio maintains that the "anchor of salvation" for the world, is not the Holy Cross of Our Lord Jesus Christ, but "human fraternity." He goes out of his way verbally and symbolically to push the idea that we must enter the "Ark of Fraternity," not the Ark of Salvation, the Holy Catholic Church wherein true salvation is found in the one and only Savior, Jesus Christ.

This is pure and unadulterated Freemasonry which speaks, as everyone knows, of human fraternity, and earthly happiness not of supernatural salvation and beatitude rendered by the blood of Christ.
