The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

GOSPEL Luke 1:41-50 At that time, Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost. And she cried out with a loud voice and said: "Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed art thou that hast believed, because those things shall be accomplished that were spoken to thee by the Lord." And Mary said: "My soul doth magnify the Lord. And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.

Because He hath regarded the humility of His handmaid: for behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. Because He that is mighty hath done great things to me: and holy is His name. And His mercy is from generation unto generations, to them that fear Him."

St. Joachim was the ever-chaste husband of St. Anne, the mother of our Blessed Virgin. Though advanced in years, Sts. Joachim and Anne remained fervent in their prayers to be blessed with a child. God was pleased with their devotion and chose to bless them with a miraculous conception, long past child-bearing years, as a result of their love of Him and love of each other.

Tradition teaches that while Joachim was away from home, an angel of God appeared to him in a vision. This angel promised that he and Saint Anne would bear a child who would be blessed through the ages. Upon waking from this vision, St. Joachim rushed home to share his excitement with his beloved wife. She was there to greet him, only to reveal the same good tidings as she was promised in another visitation from God's messenger.

What indescribably sweet happiness must have existed in their hearts to know God was granting them such a blessing! In gratitude and devotion to their Lord, St. Joachim delivered Mary to the service of the Temple when she was just three years old.

As a result of his exemplary love, devotion and obedience to the will of the Father, St. Joachim was named Patron of fathers, grandfathers, grandparents, married couples, cabinet makers and linen traders. He is shown in art forms as an older man, often in the company of his beloved wife, St. Anne, and sometimes with the Blessed Mother and Jesus.

Images of Saint Joachim are often identified by the presence of his associated symbols. A book or scroll represents linen makers, a shepherd's staff for the Christian word, and a basket of doves represents peace. He is almost always dressed in green, the color of hope. His feast day is August 16th.

Prayer to St. Joachim

O Glorious St. Joachim, devoted husband of Anne, father of our Blessed Mother Mary and grandfather to our Lord, Jesus, you have shown us the need for religion as the foundation for a happy family life.

Through your intercession may I obtain the graces I need, that I may sanctify my home and lead the souls entrusted to my care to eternal glory. Amen

GOSPEL for the Twelfth Sunday After Pentecost (Luke 10:23-37) At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "Blessed are the eyes that see the things which you see. For I say to you that many prophets and kings have desired to see the things that you see and have not seen them; and to hear the things that you hear and have not heard them." And behold a certain lawyer stood up, tempting Him and saying, "Master, what must I do to possess eternal life?" But He said to him: "What is written in the law? How do you read?" He answered and said, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart and with thy whole soul and with all thy strength and with all thy mind: and thy neighbor as thyself." And He said to him, "You have answered rightly. Do this and you shall live." But he wishing to justify himself, said to Jesus: "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus answered and said: "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among robbers, who also stripped him and having wounded him went away, leaving him half dead. And it chanced, that a certain priest went down the same way: and seeing him, passed by. In like manner also a Levite, when he was near the place and saw him, passed by. But a certain Samaritan, being on his journey, came near him: and seeing him, was moved with compassion: And going up to him, bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine: and setting him upon his own beast, brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper and said: 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I, on my way back, will repay you.' "Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to him that fell among the robbers?" And he said: "He who took pity on him." And Jesus said to him: "Go and do also in like manner."

The Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Our Lady of Fatima asked for the Consecration of Russia to her Immaculate Heart in order to obtain world peace and the conversion of Russia. To it must be added devout prayers, true repentance and penance for the sins of men.

In the midst of the Second World War Pope Pius XII put the whole world under the special protection of our Savior's Mother by consecrating it to her Immaculate Heart and in 1944 decreed that in the future the whole Church should celebrate the feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary on August 22nd, formally octave day of the Assumption.

Pius XII instituted the feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary to obtain by her intercession, peace among nations, freedom for the Church, the conversion of sinners, the love of purity and the practice of virtue.

May the Blessed Virgin Mary intervene and help the whole world, now!

A Prayer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary ~ Immaculate Heart of Mary, my Mother I come to you in childlike prayer. I earnestly desire that all the people of the world may be brought back to the humble knowledge and love of the Sacred Heart of your dear Son. I pray, dear Mother of my God, that the wonderful beauty and purity of your own Immaculate Heart may so win our souls that we may detest all sin and dedicate our lives to the honor and glory of God, who created us.

You revealed the secrets of your own sad heart at Fatima and begged for penance, prayer, and conversion of the world to God. What more can I do than unite my heart to yours in this great yearning? What can I add but the fervent prayer that all the world may listen to your pleading?

I give my heart to you, my heavenly Queen, and in confidence I leave to you what is best for me in answer to my prayer for love and reparation.

Immaculate Heart of the Mother of my God, I implore through your powerful intercession, the conversion of the hearts of men, complete victory over sin, and the return of the peace which you have promised. Amen

DRESS POLICY ~ When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, please use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
