GOSPEL Matt. 6:24-33 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "No man can serve two masters. For either he will hate the one and love the other: or he will sustain the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. "Therefore, I say to you, be not solicitous for your life, what you shall eat, nor for your body, what you shall put on. Is not the life more than the meat: and the body more than the raiment? Behold the birds of the air, for they neither sow, nor do they reap, nor gather into barns: and your heavenly Father feeds them. Are not you of much more value than they? And which of you by taking thought, can add to his stature one cubit? "And for raiment why are you solicitous? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they labor not, neither do they spin. But I say to you, that not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed as one of these. And if the grass of the field, which is today, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, God doth so clothe: how much more you, O ye of little faith! "Be not solicitous therefore, saying: What shall we eat: or what shall we drink, or wherewith shall we be clothed? For after all these things do the heathens seek. For your Father knows that you have need of all these things. Seek ye therefore first the kingdom of God, and His justice, and all these things shall be added unto you."

Saint Rose of Lima was born Isabel Flores de Olivia in the city of Lima, Peru on April 20, 1586. Her later nickname "Rose" comes from an incident in her infancy: a servant claimed to have seen her face transform into a rose. In 1597 Isabel was confirmed and she formally took the name of Rose at that time.

As a young girl, in emulation of the noted Dominican tertiary Catherine of Siena, she began to fast three times a week and performed severe penances in secret. Despite the censure of her parents, she spent many hours contemplating the Blessed Sacrament, which she received daily, an extremely rare practice in that period. After daily fasting, she took to permanently abstaining from eating meat. She helped the sick and hungry around her community, bringing them to her room and taking care of them. Rose sold her fine needlework, and took flowers that she grew to market, to help her family. She made and sold lace and embroidery to care for the poor, and she prayed and did penance in a little grotto that she had built. Otherwise, she became a recluse, leaving her room only for her visits to church.

She attracted the attention of the friars of the Dominican Order. St. Rose wanted to become a nun, but her father forbade it, so she instead entered the Third Order of St. Dominic while living in her parents' home. In her twentieth year she donned the habit of a tertiary and took a vow of perpetual virginity. She only allowed herself to sleep two hours a night at most, so that she had more hours to devote to prayer. She donned a heavy crown made of silver, with small spikes on the inside, in emulation of the Crown of Thorns worn by Christ.

For eleven years she lived this way, with intervals of ecstasy, and eventually died on August 24, 1617, at the young age of 31. It is said that she prophesied the date of her death. Her funeral was held in the cathedral, attended by all the public authorities of Lima. Her feast day is on August 30th.

Saint Rose was beatified by Pope Clement IX on May 10, 1667, and canonized on April 12, 1671, by Pope Clement X. She was the first Catholic in the Americas to be declared a saint. Her shrine, alongside those of her friends Martin de Porres and John Macias, is located inside the convent of Saint Dominic in Lima.

The Catholic Church says that many miracles followed her death: there were stories that she had cured a leper, and that, at the time of her death, the city of Lima smelled like roses; roses also started falling from the sky.

Many places in the New World are named Santa Rosa after her.

Saint Rose is the patroness of the Americas, especially of Lima, Peru, of Sittard in the Netherlands, of India, and of the Philippines, as well as embroiderers, gardeners, florists and people ridiculed or misunderstood for their piety and for the resolution of family quarrels.

Catechism Classes ~ Reminder to parents

Catechism classes are held after the 9am Mass every Sunday starting on September 12th.

It is the responsibility of all Catholic parents to provide Catholic teaching to their children. These classes provide the teachings of traditional Catholic theology and preparation for the sacraments. Attendance is required and recorded for the reception of the sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation.

The Apologetics classes are for all Confirmed young adults, and interested new converts, to help explain the faith in our challenging times. Please see James DeFillips for more information.

First Communion and Confirmation classes are held together in the Board Room. Apologetics classes are held on the outside patio on the northwest side of the church hall or the Board Room (for video use).

Father Charles Orphanage and Seminary

Hello Everyone,

I have organized a financial donation drive for Father Charles who lives in Haiti. He is the rector of Our Lady of La Salette in Port-au-Prince, a Traditional Roman Catholic church. Most of us remember him when he visited Holy Family two years ago. He runs an orphanage with 14 young children, a school attended by 127 children and assisted by 7 teachers. He has a seminary with 2 priests and 7 seminarians and a convent with 6 nuns and 3 aspirants.

Fr. Charles is overextended and working with extremely limited resources. Given all that has happened in impoverished Haiti, he is in dire need of financial donations, otherwise he cannot sustain the operations any longer. He now finds himself on the verge of closing the doors of both the school and orphanage. One of the missions he has in the southern mountains of Haiti was just destroyed by the earthquake, yet he continues to send people and supplies to assist. Mass is celebrated once a month in these remote locations where the faithful live.

I humbly plead with you to give to our fellow faithful Catholics in their time of need.

I have set up a GO FUND ME page; “Haitian children’s orphanage, David McCallan”.

Alternatively, you can give me cash or a check directly.

Feel free to contact me with any questions @ 321-243-0617.

Any amount is greatly appreciated, so please don’t feel that any amount is too small.

The Lord sees our goodwill and we will be rewarded.

With gratitude,

David McCallan, parishioner

As we continue to update the church records you may receive a phone call to verify your information. If you have not filled out an Information Card in 2020 or 2021, please do so, and drop it in the collection basket. We ask that you also include your email on the back. The cards are located at the rear of the church near the religious items.

This information will enable us to contact you, should you or a loved one become ill or for various reasons are unable to attend Mass. It also will enable us to provide you with any vital information about the church, should it be necessary.

In addition, we invite you to talk with Father or a board member should you be aware of a parishioner that has not been at Mass, as we are happy to contact them directly to check on their health and well-being.

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Safreed before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
