Fifteenth Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Luke 7:11-16 At that time, Jesus went into a city that is called Naim: and there went with Him His disciples and a great multitude. And when He came nigh to the gate of the city, behold a dead man was carried out, the only son of his mother: and she was a widow. And a great multitude of the city was with her. Whom when the Lord had seen, being moved with mercy towards her, He said to her: "Weep not." And He came near and touched the bier. And they that carried it stood still. And He said: "Young man, I say to thee, arise." And he that was dead sat up and began to speak. And He gave him to his mother. And there came a fear upon them all: and they glorified God saying: "A great prophet is risen up among us: and, God hath visited His people."

September – Month of the Holy Cross

Thanks be to God that His wisdom often turns human plans upside down and inside out. We see this in the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. The instrument of torture becomes the throne of glory.

He Who was nailed to the Cross like a criminal is in fact the King of kings before Whom one day every knee shall bow.

The splendor of the Holy Cross guarantees that in our war against the forces of darkness we are already well and truly on the winning side. The principal and decisive battle has already been fought and won by the Son of God. What now remains are the continuing skirmishes by which the Enemy tries to undermine our confidence in Christ's victory.

How do we exalt the Holy Cross? By showing forth in our daily lives the Gospel truth that suffering can be salvific. We also exalt Christ the Lord by reaching out in charity to our neighbors, especially to those who do not yet share our faith.

How are people going to know about Christ unless we tell them? How will they come to believe in Him unless we prepare the ground for them to receive the Holy Ghost's supernatural gift of faith?

We cannot hope to prepare the ground unless we ourselves are credible witnesses. We bear witness to Christ (among many other ways) by being of genuine service to our fellow citizens, serving them after the pattern of His own compassion and generosity.

We serve our neighbors in order to share with them something of what we ourselves have received; the countless blessings of that infinite charity which the Sacred Heart of Jesus unremittingly intends for the whole of mankind.

PRAYER

O God, who willed that your Only Begotten Son should undergo the Cross to save the human race, grant, we pray, that we, who have known His mystery on earth, may merit the grace of His redemption in heaven. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

Catechism Classes ~ Reminder to parents

Catechism classes are held after the 9am Mass every Sunday starting on September 12th.

It is the responsibility of all Catholic parents to provide Catholic teaching to their children. These classes provide the teachings of traditional Catholic theology and preparation for the sacraments. Attendance is required and recorded for the reception of the sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation.

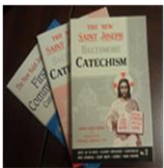

The Apologetics classes are for all Confirmed young adults, and interested new converts, to help explain the faith in our challenging times. Please see James DeFillips for more information.

First Communion and Confirmation classes are held together in the Board Room. Apologetics classes are held on the outside patio on the northwest side of the church hall or the Board Room (for video use).

Father Charles Orphanage and Seminary

Hello Everyone,

I have organized a financial donation drive for Father Charles who lives in Haiti. He is the rector of Our Lady of La Salette in Port-au-Prince, a Traditional Roman Catholic church. Most of us remember him when he visited Holy Family two years ago. He runs an orphanage with 14 young children, a school attended by 127 children and assisted by 7 teachers. He has a seminary with 2 priests and 7 seminarians and a convent with 6 nuns and 3 aspirants.

Fr. Charles is overextended and working with extremely limited resources. Given all that has happened in impoverished Haiti, he is in dire need of financial donations, otherwise he cannot sustain the operations any longer. He now finds himself on the verge of closing the doors of both the school and orphanage. One of the missions he has in the southern mountains of Haiti was just destroyed by the earthquake, yet he continues to send people and supplies to assist. Mass is celebrated once a month in these remote locations where the faithful live.

I humbly plead with you to give to our fellow faithful Catholics in their time of need.

I have set up a GO FUND ME page; “Haitian children’s orphanage, David McCallan”.

Alternatively, you can give me cash or a check directly.

Feel free to contact me with any questions @ 321-243-0617.

Any amount is greatly appreciated, so please don’t feel that any amount is too small.

The Lord sees our goodwill and we will be rewarded.

With gratitude,

David McCallan, parishioner

As we continue to update the church records you may receive a phone call to verify your information. If you have not filled out an Information Card in 2020 or 2021, please do so, and drop it in the collection basket. We ask that you also include your email on the back. The cards are located at the rear of the church near the religious items.

This information will enable us to contact you, should you or a loved one become ill or for various reasons are unable to attend Mass. It also will enable us to provide you with any vital information about the church, should it be necessary.

In addition, we invite you to talk with Father or a board member should you be aware of a parishioner that has not been at Mass, as we are happy to contact them directly to check on their health and well-being.

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Safreed before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
