Seventeenth Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Matt. 22, 34-46 At that time, the Pharisees, came to Jesus and one of them, a doctor of the Law, putting Him to the test, asked Him, "Master, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?" Jesus said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart, and with your whole soul, and with your whole mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. And the second is like it, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets." Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus questioned them saying, "What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is He?" They said to Him, "David's". He said to them, "How then does David in the Spirit call Him Lord", saying, "The Lord said to my Lord: Sit at My right hand, till I make Your enemies Your footstool?" If David, therefore, calls Him Lord, how is He, his son?" And no one could answer Him a word; neither did anyone dare from that day forth to ask Him any more questions.

The Feast of the Most Holy Rosary, is a feast day of the Roman Catholic Church, celebrated on October 7th, the anniversary of the decisive victory of the combined fleet of the Holy League of 1571 over the Ottoman navy at the Battle of Lepanto.

In 1571, Pope St. Pius V organized a coalition of forces from Spain and smaller Christian kingdoms, republics and military orders, to rescue Christian outposts in Cyprus, particularly the Venetian outpost at Famagusta which, however, surrendered after a long siege on August 1 before the Christian forces set sail. On October 7, 1571, the Holy League, a coalition of southern European Catholic maritime states, sailed from Messina, Sicily, and met a powerful Ottoman fleet in the Battle of Lepanto. Knowing that the Christian forces were at a distinct materiel disadvantage, the holy pontiff, Pope Pius V, called for all of Europe to pray the Rosary for victory, and led a rosary procession in Rome.

Pius V instituted "Our Lady of Victory" as an annual feast to commemorate the victory at Lepanto, which he attributed to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

In 1573, Pope Gregory XIII changed the title of the "Feast of Our Lady of Victory" to "Feast of the Holy Rosary", to be celebrated on the first Sunday of October. Dominican friar Juan Lopez in his 1584 book on the rosary states that the feast of the rosary was offered "in memory and in perpetual gratitude of the miraculous victory that the Lord gave to his Christian people that day against the Turkish armada".

In 1671 the observance of this festival was extended by Clement X to the whole of Spain, and somewhat later Clement XI, after the victory over the Turks gained by Prince Eugene in the Battle of Petrovaradin on August 5, 1716 (the feast of Our Lady of the Snows), commanded the feast of the Most Holy Rosary be celebrated by the universal Church.

Leo XIII raised the feast to the rank of a double of the second class and added to the Litany of Loreto the invocation "Queen of the Most Holy Rosary". On this feast, in every church in which the Rosary confraternity has been duly erected, a plenary indulgence toties quoties is granted upon certain conditions to all who visit therein the Rosary chapel or statue of Our Lady. This has been called the "Portiuncula" of the Rosary.

Pius X in 1913 changed the date to October 7th, as part of his effort to restore celebration of the liturgy of the Sundays.

"Purgatory exists, and the souls detained therein are helped by the suffrages of the faithful, but especially by the acceptable sacrifice of the altar."
Council of Trent

OCTOBER, MONTH OF THE HOLY ANGELS AND THE ROSARY

The lovely month of October comes round and directs our attention and meditations to the rosary and the holy angels. The Blessed Virgin Mary is the Queen of Angels.

The mysteries of the rosary are almost constantly suggestive of the angels. The announcement that she should be the mother of Jesus was made to Mary by an angel. No doubt the visitation to her cousin Elizabeth was attended by angels, though they were invisible.

The birth of the Savior was announced by a glorious choir of angels, who sang, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men of good will."

The agony of our Lord in the garden was consoled by a ministering angel.

In the glorious mysteries, especially, the ministry of the angels is conspicuous.

At the resurrection angels came and rolled away the stone from the sepulcher and announced to the disciples that their Lord had risen from the dead.

At the ascension a company of angels received Him as He passed out of sight.

The assumption and coronation of the Blessed Virgin were, of course, celebrated by an innumerable company of angels.

Indeed, if we meditate at all on these interesting mysteries as we recite the various decades it would seem the most natural thing in the world to include offices of these glorious messengers of God who are sent forth to minister to those who shall be heirs of salvation. Today, October 2nd is the Feast Day of The Holy Guardian Angels.

In 1917, Jesus sent His Mother to Fatima, Portugal on the 13th day of consecutive months with pleas and warnings of what might happen if man did not turn back to God. These events culminated on October 13th with one of the greatest documented miracles of modern times that was witnessed by literally tens of thousands of people. Our Blessed Mother's message was quite simple. Put Jesus back at the center of our lives. Ask for God's mercy. Make sacrifices and reparations for the ways man has offended God. And pray the rosary for peace!

Most importantly, our Blessed Mother brought us a message of HOPE! If we listen, and do these things, our merciful God stands ready to embrace us. Great sufferings and disasters, both manmade and natural can be averted! "The rosary is my weapon." "Our Lady has never refused me a grace through the recitation of the rosary." "Love the Blessed Mother and make her loved. Always recite the rosary."— St. (Padre) Pio of Pietrelcina

You are invited to join the 2022
ROSARY CRUSADE,
Saturday, October 15th at 10 AM after the 9AM Mass.
We process from the church saying the 15 decades of the rosary and continue to pray for peace as
Our Lady asked us to do.

DRESS POLICY ~ When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts.
Ladies, use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Safreed before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
