Feast of Christ the King

GOSPEL (St. John 18:33-37) At that time, Pilate therefore went into the hall again and called Jesus and said to him: "Art Thou the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered: "Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or have others told it thee of Me?" Pilate answered: "Am I a Jew? Thy own nation and the chief priests have delivered Thee up to me. What hast Thou done?" Jesus answered: "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world My servants would certainly strive that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now My kingdom is not from hence." Pilate therefore said to Him: "Art Thou a King then?" Jesus answered: "Thou sayest that I am a King. For this was I born, and for this came I into the world; that I should give testimony to the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth My voice."

Feast of Christ the King

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, commonly referred to as the Feast of Christ the King, is observed on the last Sunday of October.

Pope Pius XI instituted the Feast of Christ the King in his encyclical letter Quas primas of 1925, in response to growing secularism.

According to Cyril of Alexandria, "Christ has dominion over all creatures, ...by essence and by nature." His kingship is founded upon the hypostatic union. "...The Word of God, as consubstantial with the Father, has all things in common with him, and therefore has necessarily supreme and absolute dominion over all things created."

"From this it follows that to Christ, angels and men are subject. Christ is also King by acquired, as well as by natural right, for he is our Redeemer. ...' We are no longer our own property, for Christ has purchased us "with a great price"; our very bodies are the "members of Christ." A third ground of sovereignty is that God bestowed upon Christ the nations of the world as His special possession and dominion. "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me." (Matthew 28:18)

The feast has an eschatological dimension pointing to the end of time when the kingdom of Jesus will be established in all its fullness to the ends of the earth. It also leads into Advent, when the Church commemorates the arrival of the newborn king.

Join The Altar & Rosary Society ~ Meetings are held the first Saturday of the month except during the summer.

You may be asking yourself, "What is the Altar & Rosary Society, and what are my responsibilities if I become a member? The purpose of the A&R Society is to cultivate and promote a greater devotion to Our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar through Our Lady as Queen of the Most Holy Rosary; likewise, to employ ways and means to secure the adornment of the sanctuary of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

"Purgatory exists, and the souls detained therein are helped by the suffrages of the faithful, but especially by the acceptable sacrifice of the altar." Council of Trent

MEMORIAL PAGE 2022 -23

To include your loved ones' names or family name on the memorial page over the coming year, please print the names clearly on the envelope designated "Memorial Page". Envelopes may be found in the rear of the church.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

As I sit in a place called "Bigby Coffee" thinking about this column, it strikes me that I have never written about the month I spend in Michigan every year.

Anyone who knows me understands that I dislike travel. Now, unless there is any misunderstanding, I don't mean 'traveling' to the hospital to visit the faithful but traveling to the hot spots of the world—I don't have any desire to see the great sites of Europe, especially as Bergoglio occupies the Vatican—this would take all the fun out of it. I find that kind of travel upsetting, and therefore not something that would produce happiness.

Even going to Michigan is a trial. Yes, I love the autumn weather, the nip in the air and the leaves are beautiful, especially beautiful this year. But my schedule is disrupted, the bed is very uncomfortable, I have to accommodate to an [expensive] rental car—two this year because the first one had technical problems. The room I'm in has no "comfy chair," just some really cheap kitchen thing that looks like it should have been thrown out years ago. It can be rather cold here, and often the heat is not on very much at all. My body, as well as my wallet hurts.

But spiritually it is truly beneficial. Part of the reason a Catholic goes on retreat is to disrupt his normal life, to disengage from the usual and the comfortable. We know that Our Lord Jesus Christ says in Matthew 8:20: "The foxes have holes, and birds of the air nests: but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head." So, it allows the person to understand and attempt to identify in some small way with Christ and his life here on earth—possessing nothing. St. Paul has taught us referring to himself: "Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me."

I tell you all of this not to complain, as it is what I have chosen to do. As a matter of fact, it makes me all the more appreciative of what I come back to in Melbourne. But for a month my mind is much more on the last things: Death, Judgement, Heaven and Hell. I feel death creeping up in my body—it's creaky—especially based on what I remember from way back when I was 20 or 30. I realize ever more deeply that death will come for me someday. This is a result of Original Sin and its effects, and I am no exception.

What will be my fate on the inevitable day of death? I have reflected much on that this month. Like everyone else, I am a sinner, and have sinned in my life. Some of my mistakes in the past were based on immaturity, but much of that [I hope] has been cured. Nevertheless, God's judgement will prevail upon death. This is especially relevant for a priest, as I contemplated on the fact that St. John Chrysostom said in a much more truthful time than ours: "The floor of Hell is paved with the skulls of priests and bishops." My prayer is that mine will not be among them. That's why I go away for a month every year, that the power of Christ's salvation may come upon me.

ALL SAINTS DAY ~ On May 13, 609 A.D. Pope Boniface IV dedicated the Pantheon in Rome in honor of all Christian martyrs, and the Catholic feast of All Martyrs Day was established in the Western church. Pope Gregory III later expanded the feast day to include all saints as well as all martyrs and moved the observance from May 13th to November 1st.

ALL SOUL'S DAY ~ In the Catholic Church, "the faithful" refers specifically to baptized Catholics; "all souls" commemorates the church penitent souls in Purgatory. It is called the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed and is celebrated on November 2nd.

We can pay no greater honor to the Saints than by offering up to God in their name the Blood of Jesus. The efficacy of their past merits and present prayers are greatly increased when offered to God in close association with the merits and prayers of our Lord. Therefore, the Church commemorates on this day all the Saints in heaven without exception, and thus honors also those who are unknown and who have no public recognition in the Liturgy. Sylvester Juergens

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Safreed before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
