Second Sunday After Easter

GOSPEL John 10:11-16 At that time, Jesus said to the Pharisees: "I am the Good Shepherd. The good shepherd lays down His life for His sheep. He who is a hired hand and not a shepherd, who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. He flees because he is a hired hand and cares nothing for the sheep. "I am the Good Shepherd. I know Mine and Mine know Me, just as the Father knows Me and I know the Father; and I lay down My life for My sheep. And I have other sheep that are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will hear My voice, and there will be one fold and one Shepherd."

Saint Catherine of Siena was born during the outbreak of the plague in Siena, Italy on March 25, 1347. She was the 25th child born to her mother, although half of her brothers and sisters did not survive childhood. Catherine herself was a twin, but her sister did not survive infancy. Her mother was 40 when she was born. Her father was a cloth dyer. At the age of 16, Catherine's sister, Bonaventura, died, leaving her husband as a widower. Catherine's parents proposed that he marry Catherine as a replacement, but Catherine opposed this. She began fasting and cut her hair short to mar her appearance. Her parents attempted to resist this move, to avoid marriage, but they were unsuccessful. Her fasting and her devotion to her family, convinced them to relent and allow her to live as she pleased.

Catherine once explained that she regarded her father as a representation of Jesus and her mother as Our Lady, and her brothers as the apostles, which helped her to serve them with humility.

Despite Catherine's religious nature, she did not choose to enter a convent and instead she joined the Third Order of St. Dominic, which allowed her to associate with a religious society while living at home. Fellow Dominican sisters taught St. Catherine how to read. Meanwhile, she lived quietly, isolated within her family home.

St. Catherine developed a habit of giving things away and she continually gave away her family's food and clothing to people in need. She never asked permission to give these things away, and she quietly put up with their criticisms.

Something changed her when she was 21. She described an experience she referred to as her "mystical marriage to Christ." In her vision, she was told to reenter public life and to help the poor and sick. She often visited hospitals and homes where the poor and sick were found. Her activities quickly attracted followers who helped her in her mission to serve the less fortunate.

St. Catherine was drawn further into the world as she worked, and eventually she began to travel, calling for reform of the Church and for people to confess and to love God totally.

She became involved in politics and was key in working to keep Italian city states loyal to the Pope. She was also credited with helping to start a crusade to the Holy Land. From 1375 onwards, St. Catherine began dictating letters to scribes. She petitioned for peace and was instrumental in persuading the Pope in Avignon to return to Rome. She was influential in restoring the Papacy to Rome and in brokering peace deals during a time of factional conflict and war between the Italian city states.

St. Catherine also established a monastery for women in 1377 outside of Siena. She is credited with composing over 400 letters, her Dialogue, which is her definitive work, and her prayers. These works are so important that St. Catherine would later be declared a Doctor of the Church. She is one of the most well-known saints in the Church.

By 1380, the 33-year-old had become ill, possibly because of her habit of extreme fasting. Her confessor ordered her to eat, but she replied that she found it difficult to do so, and that possibly she was ill. In January of 1380, her illness accelerated her inability to eat and drink. Within weeks, she was unable to use her legs. She died on April 29th, following a stroke just a week prior.

St. Catherine's Feast Day is April 29th. She is the patroness of the United States, Italy, nurses and people ridiculed for their faith. She is also the patroness against fire, illness, miscarriages, and sexual temptation.

~ Holy Family Church is starting a traditional school beginning August 2023 ~

The Chapel will have a school on the church premises this year, teaching grades Pre-K through 6th. If you have children or grandchildren aged 4 - 11, strongly consider enrolling them at the open house in May. Holy Family School teaches a traditional catholic curriculum with tried and true academic programs such as Mother Seton and Our Lady of Victory. It is the responsibility of all parents to provide a Catholic education for their children. Tuition is affordable and tuition assistance is available, either can be discussed at the open house. We anticipate the addition of Religious to the school staff in the near future.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

The following is part two of an essay by Dennis Prager, President of Prager University, and a commentator on cultural and religious issues.

COULD IT HAPPEN HERE? IT IS HAPPENING HERE II

The greatest of all freedoms, that of speech, is disappearing. Since Lenin, no left-wing institution or country ever allowed dissent, and the left in America — which is elected and defended by liberals — is no exception. Already almost half of all college students say they do not believe in free speech for “hate speech,” which of course, means they are for suppressing all speech with which the Left differs.

Perhaps even more than in the Soviet Union, lunacy has replaced reason. In Ontario, Canada's most populous province, the provincial agency in charge of education has announced that the notion that there is only one correct answer in mathematics is an expression of white supremacy. The Oregon Education Department has announced the same thing. The American Medical Association has declared that no American birth certificates should list the sex/gender of a child — the child will decide that later.

Teachers across the country are robbing children as young as 5 of their innocence. They are routinely taken to drag queen shows where men in women's clothing dance for them (sometimes lewdly). Why? Because it is the aim of most American schools from first grade to postgraduate to have all American young people believe that sex/gender is “nonbinary” — that alone in the animal kingdom, human beings are not divided into male and female.

In the COVID-19 era, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, National Institutes of Health and virtually every other national medical and health agency largely abandoned science and even elementary decency (recall all the Americans who were forcibly deprived of any visitors and left to die alone in hospitals) and became tools of the Left. They and America's Sovietized teachers' unions ruined millions of American children by closing schools for nearly two years. In addition to the doomsday hysteria over climate change, the imposed gender confusion and the absence of religion, this has led to the highest rates of adolescent depression and suicide ever recorded in America.

Our justice department, about half of our judges and our security agencies are well on their way to becoming what the Soviet ministry of justice, Soviet security agencies and Soviet judges were: tools of the ruling party.

Our mainstream media, with few exceptions, are as uncommitted to truth as were the organs of the Soviet Communist Party, Pravda and Izvestia. The New York Times, The Washington Post, CNN, ABC, NBC, CBS, NPR AND PBS play the same role for the Left and therefore the Democratic Party.

It was only a matter of time until the Left would arrest a former president of the opposition party.
