Third Sunday After Easter

GOSPEL John 16:16-22. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "A little while, and you shall see Me no longer; and again a little while and you shall see Me, because I go to the Father." Some of His disciples therefore said one to another, "What is this He says to us, 'A little while and you shall not see Me, and again a little while, and you shall see Me'; and 'I go to the Father'?" They said therefore: "What is this 'little while' of which He speaks? We do not know what He is saying." And Jesus knew that they had a mind to ask Him. And He said to them: "Of this do you inquire among yourselves, because I said, 'A little while, and you shall not see Me, and again a little while, and you shall see Me.' Amen, amen, I say to you, that you shall lament and weep, but the world shall rejoice: and you shall be made sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman, when she is in labour, hath sorrow, because her hour is come; but when she hath brought forth the child, she no longer remembers the anguish, for her joy that a man is born into the world. And you therefore have sorrow now; but I will see you again and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one shall take from you."

St. Pius V, Pope ~ Pope from 1566-1572 and one of the foremost leaders of the Catholic Reformation. Born Antonio Ghislieri in Bosco, Italy, to a poor family, he labored as a shepherd until the age of fourteen and then joined the Dominicans, being ordained in 1528.

Called Brother Michele, he studied at Bologna and Genoa, and then taught theology and philosophy for sixteen years before holding the posts of master of novices and prior for several Dominican houses.

Named inquisitor for Como and Bergamo, he was so capable in the fulfillment of his office that by 1551, and at the urging of the powerful Cardinal Carafa, he was named by Pope Julius III commissary general of the Inquisition.

In 1555, Carafa was elected Pope Paul IV and was responsible for Ghislieri's swift rise as a bishop of Nepi and Sutri in 1556, cardinal in 1557, and grand inquisitor in 1558.

While out of favor for a time under Pope Pius IV who disliked his reputation for excessive zeal, Ghislieri was unanimously elected a pope in succession to Pius on January 7, 1566. As pope, Pius saw his main objective as the continuation of the massive program of reform for the Church, in particular the full implementation of the decrees of the Council of Trent.

He published the Roman Catechism, the revised Roman Breviary, and the Roman Missal; he also declared Thomas Aquinas a Doctor of the Church, commanded a new edition of the works of Thomas Aquinas, and created a commission to revise the Vulgate. The decrees of Trent were published throughout all Catholic lands, including Europe, Asia, Africa, and the New World, and the pontiff insisted on their strict adherence.

In 1571, Pius created the Congregation of the Index to give strength to the Church's resistance to Protestant and heretical writings, and he used the Inquisition to prevent any Protestant ideas from gaining a foothold in Italy.

In dealing with the threat of the Ottoman Turks who were advancing steadily across the Mediterranean, Pius organized a formidable alliance between Venice and Spain, culminating in the Battle of Lepanto, which was a complete and shattering triumph over the Turks. The day of the victory was declared the Feast Day of Our Lady of Victory in recognition of Our Lady's intercession in answer to the saying of the Rosary all over Catholic Europe.

Pius also spurred the reforms of the Church by example. He insisted upon wearing his coarse Dominican robes, even beneath the magnificent vestments worn by the popes, and was wholeheartedly devoted to the religious life.

His reign was blemished only by the continuing oppression of the Inquisition; the often brutal treatment of the Jews of Rome; and the ill-advised decision to excommunicate Queen Elizabeth I of England in February 1570, an act which also declared her deposed and which only worsened the plight of English Catholics.

These were overshadowed in the view of later generations by his contributions to the Catholic Reformation. Pope Clement beatified him on May 1, 1672, and Pope Clement XI canonized him on May 22, 1712.

~ Holy Family Church is starting a traditional school beginning August 2023 ~

The Chapel will have a school on the church premises this year, teaching grades Pre-K through 6th. If you have children or grandchildren aged 4 - 11, strongly consider enrolling them at the open house in May. Holy Family School teaches a traditional catholic curriculum with tried and true academic programs such as Mother Seton and Our Lady of Victory. It is the responsibility of all parents to provide a Catholic education for their children. Tuition is affordable and tuition assistance is available, either can be discussed at the open house. We anticipate the addition of Religious to the school staff in the near future.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

THE SUN WILL BE DARKENED AND THE MOON WILL NOT GIVE ITS LIGHT

Many things are predicted in relation to signs that will occur before the Second Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. In the 24th chapter of the Gospel of St. Matthew, and the Apocalypse of St. John especially, we see the use of apocalyptic language to convey important ideas that transcend prose but are more aptly rendered symbolically. For example:

But immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of heaven will be shaken.

When Christ walked the earth, he was indeed not only the Son of God, the Second Person of the most Holy Trinity, but he was the Sun — the light of the world:

I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life. John 8:12

The Church, the one true Church which our Lord founded, is to continue diffusing that light after His ascension into heaven. The Church is therefore the extension of Christ in space and time and will in some fashion remain until the Lord comes again.

When sacred scripture speaks of the sun being darkened, the important concept here is not so much a cosmological reality but an ecclesial reality—the Church will be eclipsed, it will not shine its light. This is far worse than the sun itself losing its light, and the plagues that are spoken of ravaging through the world rendering physical damage.

St. Augustine, the most illustrious Doctor of the Church, has an important commentary on this idea:

For when the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars fall from the sky, and the powers of heaven will be shaken, as is recalled by the other two evangelists in this place, THE CHURCH WILL NOT APPEAR. Then the wicked persecutors will rage beyond measure, unafraid, enjoying worldly happiness saying “peace and security.” Then the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of heaven will be moved; because many who were shining with grace, will yield to their persecutors, and will fall, and some of the strongest among the faithful will be shaken.

“The Church will not appear.” With every other crisis the Church has endured in its long 2000 year history, the Church was still visible. But in our time the prophecy of the Church being darkened has come about. We will explore this in subsequent installments of this column.
