Fifth Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Matt. 5:20-24 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "Unless your justice abound more than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to them of old: 'Thou shalt not kill.' And whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgment. But I say to you, that whosoever is angry with his brother, shall be in danger of the judgment. And whosoever shall say to his brother, 'Raca,' shall be in danger of the council. And whosoever shall say, 'Thou fool', shall be in danger of hell fire.

If therefore thou offer thy gift at the altar, and there thou remember that thy brother hath anything against thee; Leave there thy offering before the altar, and go first to be reconciled to thy brother, and then coming thou shalt offer thy gift."

July is the month of the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ ~ The Chaplet of the Precious Blood

This devotion consists of seven mysteries in which we meditate on the seven main shedding of the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ. The Our Father is said five times after each mystery except for the last, when it is said three times-----in all thirty-three times-----in honor of the thirty-three years of Our Savior's life on earth.

V. O God, come to my assistance!

R. Lord, make haste to help me!

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

FIRST MYSTERY

Jesus shed His Blood in the Circumcision.

Let us ask for chastity of soul and body.

Our Father five times, Glory be to the Father once.

V. We pray Thee, Lord, help Thy servants!

R. Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy Precious Blood!

(This invocation to the Precious Blood is said after the Our Father and Glory be of each mystery.)

THIRD MYSTERY

Jesus shed His Blood in the Scourging at the Pillar.

Let us ask for patience and self-control.

FIFTH MYSTERY

Jesus shed His Blood while carrying His Cross to Calvary.

Let us ask for acceptance of our daily crosses.

SEVENTH MYSTERY

Jesus shed Blood and water from His side pierced by the Lance.

Let us ask for perseverance.

SECOND MYSTERY

Jesus shed His Blood in the Agony while praying in the Garden of Olives.

Let us ask for the spirit of prayer.

FOURTH MYSTERY

Jesus shed His Blood in the Crowning with Thorns.

Let us ask for humility to atone for pride.

SIXTH MYSTERY

Jesus shed His Blood in the terrible Crucifixion.

Let us ask for contrition.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

MALE SELF-DESTRUCTION II

Last time I referred to Sean Isaacs and the GIANTS in the lives of men that are lurking around in order to wreck havoc and destruction in their lives.

The Catholic Church formally teaches that Original Sin is a reality, and that it has severely damaged human nature by the weakening of the will and the darkening of the mind. Added to this sad state is the world, which is often wicked, along with the influence of Satan—and you have a caldron of potentially bad things that might very well happen.

The GIANTS of destruction are: Unrighteous Anger; Unrecognized Slothfulness; Untampered Lust; Unlawful People Pleasing; Unrepentant Pride.

Let's start with Unrighteous Anger. Some time back I was engaged in a discussion with a relative in which we were lending our opinions as to which version of the song "Stardust" was best. There are many versions of this song, both vocal and instrumental. When I ventured the opinion that Nat King Cole's version was my favorite, he became visibly angry and sullen for a longer time than I would have thought. It was disturbing to me that a simple opinion about such a trivial issue as a song would have elicited such a reaction. I have seen this happen a number of times in my life. But why the anger?

When I was a seminarian, and helping out a parish in Connecticut, one time the phone rang and the pastor answered. After he hung up—out of his mouth came almost demonic rage—swearing and spewing out invectives which became rather frightening. This was an example of uncontrolled anger which surfaced from him on occasion, but we came to understand was never far from the surface.

When left unchecked, anger such as the above examples can lead to physical and verbal abuse, as well as disruption of relationships and even murder. Sometimes you can feel the anger a person has, even if it isn't manifested explicitly. I believe many men have a problem with anger in one form or the other, and this must be addressed as it can destroy them spiritually and in a host of other ways. Holding grudges is a form of anger. St. Alphonsus Ligouri teaches that anger or hatred is one of the four gates that leads to Hell.

Personally, I think anger is often related to pride—as in the case of the relative who got mad over a song—he wasn't even aware that Nat King Cole had a version of Stardust, and this wounded his ego.

Unrecognized Slothfulness. We equate slothfulness with laziness, but this is not exactly the meaning here. A person can be industrious in one aspect of his life but fail in another because of lack of attention or a reluctance to address a serious issue. A man may be a genius in the office when counseling others but fail to attend to his wife and children adequately at home. This in all actuality is a form of sloth and can lead to serious personal and familial problems.

25+ Years of Experience

Eternal FATHER, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, JESUS, in union with the masses said throughout the world today, for all the HOLY SOULS in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal Church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

A prayer taught by Our Lord to St. Gertrude, to release 1,000 souls from Purgatory each time it is said.
