Sixth Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Mark 8:1-9 In those days, when there was a great multitude and they had nothing to eat; calling His disciples together, He said to them: "I have compassion on the multitude, for behold they have now been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. And if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them came from afar off." And His disciples answered Him: "From whence can anyone fill them here with bread in the desert?" And He asked them: "How many loaves have you?" And they said: "Seven." And He commanded the people to sit down on the ground. And taking the seven loaves, giving thanks, He broke and gave them to His disciples and they set them before the crowd. And they had a few little fishes; and He blessed them and commanded them to be set before them. And they ate and were filled; and they took up that which was left of the fragments, seven baskets. And they that had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away.

Saint Jerome Emiliani's Story ~ Born 1481 at Venice, Italy to a wealthy family. Jerome's father died when he was a teenager, and he ran away from home at age 15. After a dissolute youth, he became a soldier in 1506.

A careless and irreligious soldier for the city-state of Venice, Jerome was captured in a military campaign at an outpost town and chained in a dungeon. In prison Jerome had a lot of time to think, and he gradually learned how to pray. When he escaped, he hung his metal chains in the nearby church -- in gratitude not only for being freed from physical prison but from his spiritual dungeon as well. Jerome returned to Venice where he took charge of the education of his nephews—and began his own studies for the priesthood. He is believed to have developed the question-and-answer catechism technique for teaching children religion.

In the years after his ordination, events again called St. Jerome to a decision and a new lifestyle. Plague and famine swept northern Italy. St. Jerome began caring for the sick and feeding the hungry at his own expense. While serving the sick and the poor, he soon resolved to devote himself and his property solely to others, particularly to abandoned children. He founded three orphanages, a shelter for penitent prostitutes and a hospital. Around 1532, St. Jerome and two other priests established a congregation, the Clerks Regular of Somasca, dedicated to the care of orphans and the education of youth.

St. Jerome died in 1537, at the age of 56, from the disease he contracted while tending the sick.

St Jerome was beatified September 29, 1747 by Pope Benedict XIV, and canonized July 16, 1767 by Pope Clement XIII. In 1928, Pius XI named him the patron of orphans and abandoned children. His Liturgical Feast Day is July 20th.

Reflection:

Very often in our lives it seems to take some kind of "imprisonment" to free us from the shackles of our self-centeredness. When we're "caught" in some situation we don't want to be in, we finally come to know the power of prayer. Only then can we become available to "the imprisoned" and "the orphaned" all around us.

Prayer:

Saint Jerome Emiliani, watch over all children who are abandoned or unloved. Give us the courage to show them God's love through our care. Help us to lose the chains that keep us from living the life God intended for us. Amen

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

THE OFFICE OF ANTICHRIST I

Some time ago, I came into possession of a shocking report titled "Official Guidelines to Inaugurate the Golden Age of Blessed Peace from the Office for Antichrist." It was issued by the then infamous P2 [Freemasonic] Lodge in Italy just prior to Vatican II. Even if you question its authenticity, it must be admitted that this has all come true. The content in brackets are my comments.

===Effective March 1962. All warlocks and officers shall report on the progress of these critical directives! [Pope] John XXIII will accept them easily!

[1] Remove St. Michael, the protector of the Catholic Church, from every prayer whether inside or outside of Mass, once and for all. Remove all of his statues. Say that it detracts from Christ. [They did this—the Leonine Prayers, the prayers after Mass—were eliminated by Paul VI in 1965]

[2] Put a stop to the practice of penance during Lent, such as Friday abstinence, or fasting. Halt any acts of self-denial. Replace with acts of joy, happiness and love of neighbor. Say that Christ already won heaven for us, and that efforts of humans are to no avail. [Very Protestant — the New Order Church preaches that most everyone goes to heaven. They did away with not eating meat on Friday back in the 1960's, too]

[3] Assign Protestant Ministers to revise and desacralize the Mass. [You can Google pictures of the six Protestant ministers who helped formulate the New Mass, under the direction of the Freemason Archbishop Bugnini] All of this will instigate doubts about the Real Presence, getting people to the Protestant belief that the bread and wine are only symbolic. [Most people do not believe in the Real Presence, but the New Mass is invalid, regardless of what anyone believes]

[4] Stop all Latin in the Mass, devotions and songs. Do so because Latin lends a feeling of mystery and respect. Show it up as mumbo jumbo and superstitious. Get people to think that priests are just like anyone else, and that they can do what they do. [Oh my how smart these people were. Well—they had the intelligence of the Devil behind them]

[5] Encourage ladies to remove their hats in Church, because hair is sexy. Let women demand to be altar girls and priestesses. Start a women's liberation! [They did all of this]

[6] Stop those receiving 'Holy Communion' from kneeling to receive the Host. Tell nuns to stop children from folding their hands to and from Communion. Tell them that God loves them as they are and wants them to be perfectly relaxed. [Indeed, this happened]

[7] Stop organ music. Bring in guitars, drums and the stomping of feet. This will prevent any personal prayer or conversation with Jesus. Don't give Jesus time to call children to religious vocations.

DRESS POLICY ~ When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts.
Ladies, use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Safreed before the reception of sacraments.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
