Ninth Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Luke 19:41-47 At that time, when Jesus drew near to Jerusalem, seeing the city, He wept over it, saying: "If you had known, and that in this your day, even you, the things that are for your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes. For the days shall come upon you when your enemies will throw up a rampart about you and surround you and shut you in on every side, and will dash you to the ground, and your children within you, and will not leave you one stone upon another, because you have not known the time of your visitation." And entering into the temple, He began to cast out them that sold therein and them that bought. Saying to them: "It is written: 'My house is the house of prayer.' But you have made it a den of thieves." And He was teaching daily in the temple.

Saint Ignatius of Loyola (23 October 1491 – 31 July 1556) was the youngest of 13 children from a family of minor nobility in northern Spain. As a young man Ignatius was inflamed by the ideals of courtly love and knighthood and dreamed of doing great things.

In 1521 Ignatius was seriously wounded in a battle with the French. While recuperating, he experienced a conversion. Reading the lives of Jesus and the saints made Ignatius happy. St. Ignatius had always dreamed of imitating heroic deeds, but now, the heroes had names like Francis of Assisi and Catherine of Siena. St. Ignatius also noticed something strange happening to him, God, he realized, was working within him. St. Ignatius realized that these feelings were clues to God's direction for him. As he traveled far and wide these experiences would prove to be the beginnings of Ignatian spirituality — and Jesuit ministry.

He became a Spanish Basque Catholic priest and theologian, who co-founded the religious order called the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) and became its first Superior General at Paris in 1541. The Jesuit order served the Pope as missionaries, and they were bound by a vow of special obedience to the sovereign pontiff in regard to the missions. They therefore emerged as an important force during the time of the Counter-Reformation.

St. Ignatius is remembered as a talented spiritual director. He recorded his method in a celebrated treatise called the Spiritual Exercises, a simple set of meditations, prayers, and other mental exercises, first published in 1548.

St. Ignatius died in Rome on 31 July 1556, as a result of the Roman Fever, a severe case of malaria that recurred in Rome, Italy, at different points in history. An autopsy revealed that he also had several kidney and bladder stones, a probable cause of the abdominal pains he suffered from later in life. He was placed in a wooden shrine and his body was then covered with his priestly garments. On 1 August the shrine was then buried in the small Maria della Strada Church. In 1568 that church was pulled down and replaced with the Church of the Gesù. Saint Ignatius was put into a new coffin and reinterred in the new church.

St. Ignatius was beatified in 1609, and then canonized, receiving the title of Saint on 12 March 1622. His feast day is celebrated on 31 July.

He is the patron saint of the Basque provinces of Gipuzkoa and Biscay as well as the Society of Jesus and was declared patron saint of all spiritual retreats by Pope Pius XI in 1922. St. Ignatius is also a foremost patron saint of soldiers.

Prayer of St. Ignatius ~ "Take, Lord, receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, my whole will, all that I have and all that I possess. You gave it all to me, Lord; I give it all back to You. Do with it as You will, according to Your good pleasure. Give me Your love and Your grace; for with this I have all that I need."

Prayer to Know God's Will ~ "May it please the supreme and divine Goodness to give us all abundant grace, ever to know His most holy will and perfectly to fulfill it." —St. Ignatius of Loyola
(This prayer was added to the end of many letters St. Ignatius wrote.)

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church and when attending any functions at the Chapel: Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts.
Ladies, use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

FORMING A NEW COUNTERFEIT CHURCH

The following is an excerpt from "Vatican II Exposed as Counterfeit Catholicism" by Frs. Francisco and Dominic Radecki, CMRI. The two priests, who are brothers, are members of The Congregation of Mary Immaculate Queen.

The word "Catholic" means "universal," and is derived from the Greek words "completely" and "whole." It describes a united, highly organized church Christ established that is essentially the same throughout the world. The Catholic Church opposes doctrinal change while adapting to every age and retaining its immutable elements. Prior to Vatican II, the doctrines, Mass and sacraments of the Catholic Church were uniform throughout the world. Mass attendance was high, most Catholics practiced their Faith, new churches, schools and colleges were built at a feverish pace, vocations were plentiful, converts were numerous, missions were successful, and Catholics had attained high positions in society.

The Second Vatican Council was one of the most disastrous events in history. During its 12 monthly sessions held from 1962 to 1965, it founded a Modern Church that resembles the Catholic Church in externals but is radically different in essentials.

Change can be positive, negative or indifferent. When the essence of something is changed it becomes something else. Vatican II created a Counterfeit Church by changing every facet of Catholicism: belief, worship and authority, resulting in a worldwide loss of faith and the eradication of Christian morals. It destroyed traditions, controlled people and detached them from their roots. Monika Hellwig wrote:

Lay people were left to cope with change altar rail by altar rail, hymn by hymn, liturgy by liturgy. There were few explanations given, little theology taught. Parishes simply implemented new formulas, accepted nuns in new habits... said prayers in new translations, and watched in sullen sadness or deep resentment as the church they had known faded into oblivion.

Author Michael Novak describes two distinct churches, pre-Vatican II and post-Vatican II:

It was as though the world (or at least the history of the church) were now to be divided into only two periods, pre-Vatican II and post-Vatican II. Everything "pre" was then pretty much dismissed... For the most extreme, to be Catholic now meant to believe more or less anything one wanted to believe or at least in the sense in which one personally interpreted it... One could take Catholic to mean the 'culture' in which one was born, rather than to mean a creed...

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Safreed before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
