GOSPEL Luke 10:23-37 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "Blessed are the eyes that see the things which you see. For I say to you that many prophets and kings have desired to see the things that you see and have not seen them; and to hear the things that you hear and have not heard them." And behold a certain lawyer stood up, tempting Him and saying, "Master, what must I do to possess eternal life?" But He said to him: "What is written in the law? How do you read?" He answered and said, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart and with thy whole soul and with all thy strength and with all thy mind: and thy neighbor as thyself." And He said to him, "You have answered rightly. Do this and you shall live." But he wishing to justify himself, said to Jesus: "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus answered and said: "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among robbers, who also stripped him and having wounded him went away, leaving him half dead. And it chanced, that a certain priest went down the same way: and seeing him, passed by. In like manner also a Levite, when he was near the place and saw him, passed by. But a certain Samaritan, being on his journey, came near him: and seeing him, was moved with compassion: And going up to him, bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine: and setting him upon his own beast, brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper and said: "Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I, on my way back, will repay you." "Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to him that fell among the robbers?" And he said: "He who took pity on him." And Jesus said to him: "Go and do also in like manner."

St. Augustine, Bishop and Confessor, Doctor of the Church

St. Augustine was born in 354 to a pagan father and a Christian mother, St. Monica. His early education was that of a young pagan gentleman, but he went on to become one of the most influential and genius Doctors of the Catholic Church.

St. Augustine's infamous life of impurity and practice of the heretical Manichaeism reveal the magnitude of his conversion to Christianity, mainly through the intercession of his mother, St. Monica.

He finally began to pull away from his pagan ways and was eventually baptized in 387 by St. Ambrose, Bishop of Milan, who became a great counselor and friend to his mother as she prayed for her son.

Saint Augustine went on to become the Bishop of Hippo (in modern day Algeria) and one of the greatest Catholic Christian writers and thinkers in the history of the Church.

For thirty-five years he was the center of ecclesiastical life in Africa, and the Church's strongest champion against heresy. His writings, which compose many volumes, have been accepted everywhere as a major source of both Christian spirituality and theological speculation. His most well-known works are his "Confessions" and "The City of God".

The great Doctor died, deeply regretted by the entire Christian world, in 430. His feast is celebrated in the Church on August 28th, the day after that of his holy mother, St. Monica. It is entirely fitting that their feasts are side-by-side on the liturgical calendar, given that Monica won her son's deep conversion to Christ through her many years of patient and persistent prayer.

St. Augustine is a perfect example of how God works miracles in our lives, often through the intercession of other people. Once St. Augustine cried out to God, "Too late have I loved you!" in sorrow over the many years he lived a dissolute life while putting off the call of God.

It is never too late to commit ourselves to conversion and service to our Lord! St. Augustine, pray for us.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

FORMING A NEW COUNTERFEIT CHURCH IV

Continuing with "Vatican II Exposed as Counterfeit Catholicism" by Frs. Francesco and Dominic Radecki, CMRI

PAPAL CONDEMNATIONS

Pope Clement XII condemned Freemasonry and Secret Societies in 1738, as have ten other popes in 200 papal documents. Popes Pius VIII, Pius IX, Pius XI, Gregory XVI, and Leo XIII condemned Religious Indifferentism, promoted by Freemasonry, that claims one religion is as good as the other. Cardinal Newman said Freemasons deify man by placing human reason above Scripture and Apostolic Tradition. The Ritual for the Mason Apprentice describes Freemasonry as "...the religion of the future, destined to replace all religions..."

RAPPROCHEMENT WITH FREEMASONRY

Issues of the Jesuit periodical, America in 1938 and 1951 stressed the "conservative nature" of Freemasonry. In 1957, Grand Commander of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Luther Smith, stated Jesuits were organizing a Freemasonic Lodge in Rome. An article in the May 1961 issue of America entitled "Priest and Freemason" described Jesuit Fr. Riquet's speech before 500 Masons that called for Catholics and Masons to unite. Fr. John O'Brien, SJ of Notre Dame, author of the article "Our Friends the Masons," in the March 1968 issue of U.S. Catholic and his 33rd Degree Freemason friend, Albert Heller, successfully encouraged many American Catholics and Knights of Columbus to join Freemasonic Lodges.

In 1950, Fr. Cordovani noted in the Montreal paper, La Devoir, that Catholic clergy were working toward an alliance with Freemasonry even though they would be excommunicated. John Paul II lifted excommunication in the New Code of Canon Law. During a speech to Freemasons in 1965, Bishop Pursley (Fort Wayne-South Bend) said Vatican II affected a working relationship between Catholics and Freemasons. Bishop Gelineau of Providence, Rhode Island, received the Grand Master Award for exemplifying Freemasonic principles. Bishop Joyce (Burlington, Vermont) and Cardinals Cody (Chicago) and Cushing (Boston) spoke at Masonic gatherings. On March 28, 1976, Cardinal Cooke (New York) was principal speaker at a Masonic Breakfast attended by 3,000 members.

Many documents of Vatican II promoted Freemasonic ideals. These include: The Degree on Ecumenism, The Declaration on Religious Freedom, The Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, The Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World, and The Declaration on the Relationship of the Church to Non-Christian Religions.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church and when attending any functions at the Chapel: Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts.
Ladies, use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Safreed before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
