Thirteenth Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Luke 17:11-19 At that time, as Jesus was going to Jerusalem, He passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And as He entered into a certain town, there met Him ten men that were lepers, who stood afar off. And lifted up their voices, saying: "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." Whom when He saw, He said: "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And it came to pass, as they went, they were made clean. And one of them, when he saw that he was made clean, went back, with a loud voice glorifying God. And he fell on his face before His feet, giving thanks. And this was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering, said: "Were not ten made clean? And where are the nine? There is no one found to return and give glory to God, but this stranger?" And He said to him: "Arise, go thy way; for thy faith hath made thee whole."

Saint Rose of Lima was born Isabel Flores de Olivia in the city of Lima, Peru on April 20, 1586. Her later nickname "Rose" comes from an incident in her infancy: a servant claimed to have seen her face transform into a rose. In 1597 Isabel was confirmed and she formally took the name of Rose at that time.

As a young girl, in emulation of the noted Dominican tertiary Catherine of Siena, she began to fast three times a week and performed severe penances in secret. Despite the censure of her parents, she spent many hours contemplating the Blessed Sacrament, which she received daily, an extremely rare practice in that period.

After daily fasting, she took to permanently abstaining from eating meat. She helped the sick and hungry around her community, bringing them to her room and taking care of them. Rose sold her fine needlework, and took flowers that she grew to market, to help her family. She made and sold lace and embroidery to care for the poor, and she prayed and did penance in a little grotto that she had built. Otherwise, she became a recluse, leaving her room only for her visits to church.

She attracted the attention of the friars of the Dominican Order. St. Rose wanted to become a nun, but her father forbade it, so she instead entered the Third Order of St. Dominic while living in her parents' home. In her twentieth year she donned the habit of a tertiary and took a vow of perpetual virginity. She only allowed herself to sleep two hours a night at most, so that she had more hours to devote to prayer. She donned a heavy crown made of silver, with small spikes on the inside, in emulation of the Crown of Thorns worn by Christ.

For eleven years she lived this way, with intervals of ecstasy, and eventually died on August 24, 1617, at the young age of 31. It is said that she prophesied the date of her death. Her funeral was held in the cathedral, attended by all the public authorities of Lima. Her feast day is on August 30th.

Saint Rose was beatified by Pope Clement IX on May 10, 1667, and canonized on April 12, 1671, by Pope Clement X. She was the first Catholic in the Americas to be declared a saint. Her shrine, alongside those of her friends Martin de Porres and John Macias, is located inside the convent of Saint Dominic in Lima.

The Catholic Church says that many miracles followed her death: there were stories that she had cured a leper, and that, at the time of her death, the city of Lima smelled like roses; roses also started falling from the sky. Many places in the New World are named Santa Rosa after her.

Saint Rose is the patroness of the Americas, especially of Lima, Peru, of Sittard in the Netherlands, of India, and of the Philippines, as well as embroiderers, gardeners, florists and people ridiculed or misunderstood for their piety and for the resolution of family quarrels.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

ATHEISTIC COMMUNISM

We continue with excerpts from "Vatican II Exposed as Counterfeit Catholicism"
by Frs. Francisco and Dominic Radecki, CMRI

Karl Marx (1818-1883) founded Atheistic Communism and wrote the Communist Manifesto in 1848. Communists have slaughtered millions throughout the world by means of violent revolutions and purges since the Bolshevik Revolution in 1917. Leader of the Soviet Union, Vladimir Lenin (1870-1924), who was responsible for the deaths of four million people, claimed there was nothing more detestable than religion.

Satan ingeniously united the secret, international network of Freemasonry with the mind-altering, re-education techniques of the Communists. Communists join Freemasons and Modernists in their attempt to destroy Catholicism by propaganda, control of the masses and by trying to banish God from society. The New York Times and the L'Osservatore Romano noted that Freemasons and Communists joined forces during the Calles' Cristero War (1926-1929) in Mexico during which 4,000 Mexican priests and countless Catholic laity were martyred.

In 1927, Communists and Spanish Freemasons worked to overthrow the Spanish Monarchy and attack the Catholic Church. During the Spanish Civil War (1936-1939), thirteen bishops, 4172 diocesan priests and seminarians, 2364 monks and friars, 283 nuns and 10% of Catholic laity in Madrid were slaughtered by anti-Catholic forces and 25,000 churches and chapels were burned. Cardinal Enrique y Tarancon (Madrid) and other Spanish prelates embraced Communist and Modernist ideology, resisted the Franco regime and embraced Liberalism, hypocritically called "social Catholicism."

Atheistic Communists subjugate nations and believe the State is supreme. They hate the Catholic Church, which defends personal freedom, and try to neutralize its influence by defaming and imprisoning its leaders. They use violence, torture and propaganda to control the masses and silence the opposition. Communists, who do not believe in God and deny a supernatural destiny for human beings, often treat people like animals or slaves and eliminate undesirables. They control the press, execute clergy and intelligentsia, and often turn churches into meeting halls, and ruthlessly kill or imprison any who challenge their authority.

In 1949, the Holy See decreed that Communists, their supporters and those who voluntarily read their literature be denied the sacraments. "A stronger penalty, excommunication, is applied automatically to all Catholics 'who profess, defend and spread the materialistic and anti-Christian doctrine of the Communists.'"

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church and when attending any functions at the Chapel: Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Gregory before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
