Twenty Fifth Sunday After Pentecost (Sixth Sunday After Epiphany)

GOSPEL Matt. 13:31-35 At that time Jesus spoke to the multitudes this parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field: which is the least indeed of all seeds but when it is grown up, it is greater than all herbs and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and dwell in the branches thereof." Another parable He spoke to them: "The kingdom of heaven is like to leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, until the whole was leavened." All these things Jesus spoke in parables to the multitudes: and without parables He did not speak to them: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying: "I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world."

Saint John of the Cross

Saint John of the Cross was born Juan de Yepes y Alvarez, in Avila, Spain in 1542. In 1563, he joined the Carmelite Order and was sent to the university in Salamanca to study theology and philosophy.

John became a priest in 1567 and he encountered Theresa of Avila, a charismatic Carmelite nun. Theresa asked John to follow her. On November 28, 1568, Theresa founded a new monastery. The same day, John changed his name to John of the Cross.

In 1572, John traveled to Avila at the invitation of Theresa to become her confessor and spiritual guide. While there, he had a vision of Christ and made a drawing that remains to this day called, "Christ from Above." The little drawing shows Christ on the cross, looking down on him from above. The image has been preserved for centuries.

Around 1575, a rift within the Carmelite order began to grow and create controversy between various monastic houses. On December 2, 1577, a group of Carmelites broke into John's residence and kidnapped him. He was taken by force to the order's main house in Toledo. He was brought before a court and placed on trial for disobedience. He was punished by imprisonment.

A cell was made for him in the monastery that was so small he could barely lie on the floor. He was fed only bread and water, and occasional scraps of salt fish. Each week he was taken into public and lashed, then returned to his cell. His only luxuries were a prayer book and an oil lamp to read it by. To pass the time he wrote poems on paper that was smuggled to him by the friar charged with guarding his cell.

John became known as a remarkable and influential poet, especially following his death. He has been cited as an influence to many poets, mystics, and artists, even Salvador Dali.

In 1591, John became ill with a skin condition that resulted in an infection and died.

Saint John of the Cross was beatified by Pope Clement X in 1675 and Canonized by Pope Benedict XIII in 1726. His feast day is November 24th. The Catholic Church distinguishes him as one of the 36 Doctors of the Church.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

THE THIRD SECRET OF FATIMA IV

The Third Secret continues:

A schism will tear apart the holy tunic of My Son. This will be the end of times, foretold in the Holy Scriptures and recalled to memory by Me in many places. The abomination of abominations will reach its peak and it will bring about the chastisement announced at La Salette.

And what is the chastisement announced at La Salette?:

The Church will be in eclipse...Rome will lose the Faith and become the seat of the Antichrist.

Such a thought is still quite astounding to most people, and in spite of all the evidence, rather controversial. Virtually all of the Fathers of the early Church spoke of this frightening reality to come. From the great Cardinal Henry Edward Manning (d. 1892):

The apostasy of the city of Rome from the vicar of Christ and its destruction by Antichrist may be thoughts very new to many Catholics, that I think it well to recite the text of theologians of greatest repute. First Malvenda, who writes expressly on the subject, states as the opinion of Ribera, Gaspar Melus, Biegas, Suarez, Bellarmine and Bosius that Rome shall apostatize from the Faith, drive away the Vicar of Christ and return to its ancient paganism...Then the Church shall be scattered, driven into the wilderness, and shall be for a time, as it was in the beginning—invisible; hidden in the catacombs, in dens, in mountains, in lurking places; for a time it shall be swept as it were from the face of the earth. Such is the universal testimony of the Fathers of the early Church.

Without question we are living in those times. How we respond to the situation that God has placed us in by His Providence might very well determine where we spend eternity. It's clear that we should spurn the Novus Ordo church with all of our heart, mind and soul, even though there are still "conservative" factions in that body that some might find appealing.

The schism spoken about in the secret is not what is happening now in Rome or talk of the split of Germany away from the Novus Ordo Church. It is almost probably true that the real schism occurred sometime from the election of John XXIII in 1958 to the publication of Lumen Gentium on November 21, 1964, when Vatican II took it upon itself to "change the nature of the Church," something that in reality it can't do.

All of this, as distressing as it is, are things that have been foretold in the Bible, Tradition and other prophetic works as the Third Secret indicates. We have been warned.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church and when attending any functions at the Chapel:

Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts.

Ladies, use a head covering, available in the back of the church for loan or purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
