Twenty Third Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Matt. 9:18-26 At that time, as Jesus was speaking these things unto them, behold a certain ruler came up, and adored Him, saying: "Lord, my daughter is even now dead; but come, lay Thy hand upon her, and she shall live." And Jesus rising up followed him, with His disciples. And behold a woman who was troubled with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind Him, and touched the hem of His garment. For she said within herself: "If I shall touch only His garment, I shall be healed." But Jesus turning and seeing her, said: "Be of good heart, daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole." And the woman was made whole from that hour. And when Jesus was come into the house of the ruler and saw the minstrels and the multitude making a rout, He said: "Give place, for the girl is not dead, but sleeping." And they laughed Him to scorn. And when the multitude was put forth, He went in, and took her by the hand. And the maid arose. And the fame hereof went abroad into all that country.

FOR THE SOULS OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Eternal rest grant upon them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen

November - Month of The Faithful Departed

As we quickly come to the end of this Liturgical Year and anticipate the upcoming Advent Season, it is good for us to be reminded that this month of November has been set aside for us to remember the Faithful Departed.

The Church has a rich tradition in remembering those who have gone before us and continues to challenge us to remain faithful in fulfilling the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy.

Two of the works of mercy should ring true for us during this month of November. As in regard to a "spiritual" work of mercy, we are to pray for the Faithful Departed.

We do this by praying traditional prayers for the Poor Souls in Purgatory. Yes, the Church still teaches the Doctrine of Purgatory. Of course, beyond our personal prayers, including the Rosary, the perfect prayer that can be offered by the Church for the living and for those who have died, is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

In regard to the "corporal" work of mercy for our deceased brothers and sisters, there is the duty to give the faithful departed a dignified Christian burial.

It is an interesting realization that what we focus upon during the month of November, the commemoration of the Faithful Departed, finds a place and purpose throughout the whole Liturgical Year of the Church.

Really, praying for the Faithful Departed should not be confined to a specific month. It naturally moves within the church year in the midst of its grace filled seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter and Time after Pentecost. Let us remember that throughout the entire year the dynamic of "dying and rising" is ever present among us and praying for the Faithful Departed is a constant call to charity out of love for them.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them.

This year marks the 29th anniversary of Holy Family Chapel at its present location and its 42nd year of service to traditional Catholics in this area.

Thanks be to God the Chapel has enjoyed a blessed and prosperous existence for 4 decades.

In order to preserve and grow the Catholic faith, given the challenges of the times we live in, we must pray for Divine assistance and plan for the next decades to come.

Kindly volunteer where needed and embrace new initiatives as they are introduced to move forward.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
