Second Sunday After Epiphany

GOSPEL John 2:1-11 At that time there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee: and the Mother of Jesus was there. And Jesus also was invited, and His disciples, to the marriage. And the wine having run short, the Mother of Jesus said to Him: "They have no wine".

And Jesus said to Her: "Woman, what would you have me do? My hour is not yet come". His Mother said to the attendants: "Do whatever He tells you". Now six stone water jars were placed there, according to the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three measures. Jesus said to them: "Fill the jars with water". And they filled them to the brim. And Jesus said to them: "Draw out now and carry to the chief steward of the feast". And they carried it.

Now when the chief steward had tasted the water made wine, and knew not whence it was, but the attendants knew who had drawn the water: the chief steward called the bridegroom and said to him: "Every man at first sets forth the good wine: and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but you have kept the good wine until now".

St. Agnes of Rome was born in 291 AD and raised in a Christian family. Agnes was very beautiful and belonged to a wealthy family. Her hand in marriage was highly sought after, and she had many high-ranking men chasing after her. However, Agnes made a promise to God never to stain her purity. Her love for the Lord was great and she hated sin even more than death!

Whenever a man wished to marry Agnes, she would always say, "Jesus Christ is my only Spouse."

According to legend, the young men she turned away became so angry and insulted by her devotion to God and purity that they began to submit her name to authorities as a Christian follower.

At last, she was condemned to death. Even the pagans cried to see such a young and beautiful girl going to death. She did not pay attention to those who begged her to save herself. "I would offend my Spouse," she said, "if I were to try to please you. He chose me first and He shall have me!" Then she prayed and bowed her head for the death-stroke of the sword.

She died a virgin-martyr at the age of 12 or 13 on 21 January 304.

Agnes was buried beside the Via Nomentana in Rome. Her bones are currently conserved beneath the high altar in the church of Sant'Angese fuori le mura in Rome, which was built over the catacomb that held her tomb. Her skull is preserved in the church of Sant'Agnese in Agone in Rome's Piazza Navona.

St. Agnes is widely known as the patron saint of young girls. She is also the patron saint of chastity, rape survivors and the Children of Mary.

Agnes is depicted in art with a lamb, from the Latin word for "lamb", agnus, the symbol of her virgin innocence. The name "Agnes" is actually derived from the feminine Greek adjective hagnē meaning "chaste, pure, sacred". She is also shown with a martyr's palm as a young girl in robes holding a palm branch with the lamb either at her feet or in her arms.

Her feast day is celebrated on January 21st. She is one of seven women who, along with the Blessed Virgin, are commemorated by name in the Canon of the Mass. On her feast day, it is customary for two lambs to be brought in to be blessed by the pope. On Holy Thursday the lambs' wool is removed and woven into the pallium the pope gives to a newly consecrated archbishop.

The fundraiser for Father Charles was a miraculous success.

Thank you all for your prayers and generous donations. The Servants of Jesus and Mary – The Fatima Center gave a very large donation, so please visit their website – www.sjmfatimacrusade.com and donate to them if you can.

Thank you to Mrs. Ellen Montgomery for facilitating this donation. The construction of Our Lady of Lasalette Church and school in (Port Au Prince) Haiti has begun in earnest. This is the only Traditional Catholic Church in the country, and God willing many more souls will be provided with the true Mass and Sacraments.

Father Charles has no words to express his profound gratitude to the parishioners and board of Holy Family Chapel for their incredible support. This provides him and his staff with hope for the future of his mission in this war-torn country.

I will provide updates of the construction of the church and school.

Thank you all, David McCallan.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

MODERNISM VII

We continue with selections from Vatican II Exposed as Counterfeit Catholicism
by Frs. Francisco and Dominic Radecki, CMRI

WOLVES POSED TO ATTACK

Jesus used the imagery of wolves and sheep to portray the battle between good and evil. "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves. By their fruits you will know them." Wolves often attack defenseless sheep because they make easy targets. When our Lord gave St. Peter primacy over the Church and the Apostles, He referred to members of his Church as "lambs" and its leaders (bishops) as "sheep." Although lambs and sheep are passive, trusting animals who follow a leader, instinct warns them to flee when they sense danger. The only way wolves (heretics) could approach a flock (the Church) unnoticed would be for them to appear like harmless sheep (as cardinals, bishops and theologians). That is exactly what occurred during the Second Vatican Council.

Since the 1930's, professors and seminarians read theological works by Chardin, Chenu, Congar, Danielou, and De Lubac, and liturgical writings by Beauduin, Bouyer, Casel, Guardini, Herwegen, Jungmann, and Michel, encouraging them to accept Modernist beliefs. When they became priests, bishops and cardinals, many spread Modernism in their parishes and dioceses. Those who attended Vatican II, disseminated it throughout the world. All that was necessary was to have an alpha wolf (John XXIII) lead the pack (heretical prelates) and have them mingle among the sheep (bishops) at Vatican II. Even though there were many good clergy at the time, there were also many infiltrators. Unfortunately, many bishops remained speechless during this time of danger. Vatican II led to the greatest loss of Faith in history.

UNDERSTANDING THE PROCESS

Standard seminary curriculum includes two years of Philosophy, followed by four years of Moral and Dogmatic Theology. Canon Law, Scripture Study and many other classes are included in this six-year training period. Religious seminarians have an additional novitiate year to develop their spiritual life. During seminary formation, young men learn to grow in virtue and persevere in prayer as they are taught theology, liturgy and moral principles. Before Vatican II, many rectors and seminary professors undermined the Faith of thousands of seminarians who trusted them. They minimized the spiritual life and gave faulty moral guidance and taught heretical beliefs. Sir Walter Scott described their method when he wrote, "Oh what a tangled web we weave when first we practice to deceive."

Seminarians become priests; priests become bishops and cardinals; and cardinals elect popes. Modernists, having patrons in high places, climbed the ladder quickly.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church and when attending any functions at the Chapel:

Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, use a head covering, available in the back of the church for loan or purchase.

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Gregory before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
