Second Sunday in Lent

GOSPEL Matt. 17:1-9 At that time, Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves, and was transfigured before them. And His face shone as the sun: and His garments became white as snow. And behold there appeared to them Moses and Elias talking with Him. Then Peter addressed Jesus, saying, "Lord, it is good for us to be here: if You will, let us make here three tabernacles, one for Thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

And as He was yet speaking, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them. And lo a voice out of the cloud, saying: "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased: hear Him." And the disciples hearing fell upon their faces and were very much afraid. And Jesus came and touched them: and said to them: "Arise, and fear not." And lifting up their eyes, saw no one, but only Jesus.

And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus cautioned them, saying: "Tell the vision to no man, till the Son of Man has risen from the dead."

St. Joseph - Everything we know about the husband of Mary and the foster father of Jesus comes from Scripture. We know he was a carpenter, a working man, for the Nazarenes ask about Jesus, "Is this not the carpenter's son?" (Matthew 13:55). He wasn't rich, for when he took Jesus to the Temple to be circumcised and Mary to be purified, he offered the sacrifice of two turtledoves or a pair of pigeons, allowed only for those who could not afford a lamb (Luke 2:24).

Despite his humble work and means, Joseph came from a royal lineage as a descendent of David, the greatest king of Israel (Matthew 1:1-16 and Luke 3:23-38). Indeed, the angel who first tells Joseph about Jesus greets him as "son of David," a royal title used also for Jesus.

We know Joseph was a compassionate, caring man. When he discovered Mary was pregnant after they had been betrothed, he knew the child was not his but was as yet unaware that she was carrying the Son of God. He knew women accused of adultery could be stoned to death, so he resolved to send her away quietly to not expose her to shame or cruelty. However, when an angel came to Joseph in a dream and told him, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Ghost. She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins," he did as the angel told him and took Mary as his wife. (Matthew 1:19-25).

Since Joseph does not appear in Jesus' public life, at his death, or resurrection, many historians believe Joseph probably had died before Jesus entered public ministry. According to the Catholic Encyclopedia, the Apocryphal Date for Joseph's birth is 90 BC in Bethlehem, and the Apocryphal Date of his death is July 20, AD 18 in Nazareth.

Joseph is the patron saint of the dying because, assuming he died before Jesus' public life, he died with Jesus and Mary close to him, the way we all would like to leave this earth. Joseph is also patron saint of the Universal Church, families, fathers, expectant mothers, travelers, immigrants, house sellers and buyers, craftsmen, engineers, and working people in general.

We celebrate two feast days for Joseph: March 19th for Joseph the Husband of Mary and May 1st for Joseph the Worker. March 19th has been the most commonly celebrated feast day, and it wasn't until 1955 that Pope Pius XII established the Feast of "St. Joseph the Worker" to be celebrated on May 1st. This is also May Day (International Workers' Day) and believed to reflect Joseph's status as the patron of workers.

Many places and churches all over the world are named after St. Joseph, including the Spanish form, San Jose, which is the most commonly named place in the world. Joseph is considered by many to also be the patron saint of the New World.

In art, Joseph is typically portrayed as an older man, with grey hair and a beard, often balding, sometimes appearing frail and a marginal figure next to Mary and Jesus, if not entirely in the background. Some statues of Joseph show his staff topped with flowers. St. Joseph is shown with the attributes of a carpenter's square or tools, the infant Jesus, his lily blossomed staff, two turtle doves, or a spikenard.

There is much we still wish we could know about Joseph -- exactly where and when he was born, how he spent his days, exactly when and how he died. But Scripture has left us with the most important knowledge of who he was -- "a righteous man" (Matthew 1:18).

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

MODERNISM XIII

From Vatican II Exposed as Counterfeit Catholicism by Frs. Francisco and Dominic Radecki, CMRI

LEADING VATICAN II ERA MODERNISTS

Satan recruited Modernists from many countries in an attempt to destroy the Catholic Church and replace it with the Modern Church. Each had a specific job and worked for a common end. Vatican II was historically one of the largest “family reunions” of heretics ever assembled. They were very focused and extremely efficient. Many who believe the changes of Vatican II were accomplished by chance fail to realize the centuries of detailed planning needed to affect the changes. Thousands played critical roles. Some indoctrinated, others infiltrated, and all trained successors. Many women played essential roles in spreading Modernism, especially Religious Sisters. They trained lay and religious helpers to continue the cycle.

Not everything that these individuals said or did reflected Modernism. Cardinal Meyer wrote an excellent Pastoral Letter on Modesty and many of Archbishop Sheen's books are doctrinally sound. Their appeal to both Modernists and Traditionalists allowed them to be respected and reached larger audiences. Surprisingly, even some who suffered incarceration in Communist prisons joined the Modernist cause. Who would ever suspect them? They were likely offered deals for infiltrating the Church. Customarily, clergy cannot rise in rank in Communist countries without collaboration of some sort.

Once opposition was neutralized at the Council, Modernists could do as they pleased. No wonder Vatican II accomplished its goals so easily. Many of those in attendance had already accepted its goal and ideals decades earlier and were happy to approve the documents. Modernists patterned their work on the Mafia where soldiers do most of the work and capos (captains) gave orders. They infiltrated the Church like cockroaches that appear everywhere.

Presented here will be some major players at Vatican II, who acted as apostles and disciples of Antichrist, preparing the world for his reign.

AMERICAN MODERNISTS

Unfortunately, many saintly American cardinals died shortly before Vatican II began, including Mundelein and Stritch (Chicago), Mooney (Detroit), Glennon (St. Louis), O'Connell (Boston), Keough (Baltimore), and Hayes (New York). Their replacements were Modernists Meyer, Cody, Dearden, Ritter and Carberry, Cushing, Sheehan and Spellman. Just before the election of John XXIII, Cardinals Stritch and Mooney died mysterious, untimely deaths in Rome. This accomplished two goals: their leadership now absent, and their voices silenced. This gave a green light to American Modernists who were happy to take a leadership role. Subsequently, they guided many Council Fathers, who blindly followed their lead.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church and when attending any functions at the Chapel:

Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, use a head covering, available in the back of the church for loan or purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
