Third Sunday in Lent

GOSPEL Luke 11:14-28 At that time, Jesus was casting out a devil: and the same was dumb. And when He had cast out the devil, the dumb spoke: and the multitudes, were in admiration at it. But some of them said: "He cast out devils by Beelzebub, the prince of devils." And others tempting, asked of Him a sign from heaven. But He, seeing their thoughts, said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself shall be brought to desolation; and house upon house shall fall. And if Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? Because you say that through Beelzebub I cast out devils. Now if I cast out devils by Beelzebub, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore, they shall be your judges. But if I by the finger of God cast out devils, doubtless the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed keeps his court, those things are in peace which he possesses. But if a stronger than he come upon him and overcomes him, he will take away all his armor wherein he trusted and will distribute his spoils. He that is not with Me is against Me; and he that gathers not with Me scatters. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walks through places without water, seeking rest: and not finding, he says: I will return into my house whence I came out. And when he is come, he finds it swept and garnished. Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself: and entering in they dwell there. And the last state of that man becomes worse than the first."

And it came to pass, as He spoke these things, a certain woman from the crowd, lifting up her voice, said to Him: "Blessed is the womb that bore You and the breasts that nursed You." But He said: "Rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God and keep it."

We are told that angels have many roles. A few of them include being God's messengers and Holy warriors, watching history unfold, praising and worshipping God, and being Guardian Angels – protecting and directing people on God's behalf.

The Bible tells us that God's angels are delivering messages, accompanying the lonely, granting protection and even fighting His battles. Angels who were sent to deliver messages began by saying "Do not be afraid," or "Do not fear."

The Angel Gabriel is a messenger who was entrusted to deliver several important messages on God's behalf. Gabriel appears to at least three people in the Bible: first to the prophet Daniel (Daniel 8:16); next to the priest Zechariah to foretell and announce the miraculous birth of John the Baptist (Luke 1:19); and finally to the virgin Mary to tell her that she would conceive and bear a son (Luke 1:26–38).

Gabriel's name means "God is great," and, as the angel of the annunciation, he is the one who revealed that the Savior was to be called "Jesus" (Luke 1:31)

In all three appearances, Gabriel was met with fear, and he had to begin his conversations with words of comfort and cheer for Daniel, Zechariah, and Mary. It is possible that Gabriel was also the angel that appeared to Joseph in Matthew 1:20, but this is not certain, since that angel is unnamed in Scripture. What we do know is that Gabriel is one of God's good and holy angels. He has a favored position as an angel who "stands in the presence of God" (Luke 1:19), and he was selected to deliver important messages of God's particular love and favor to individuals chosen to be part of God's plan.

The Angel Gabriel or Saint Gabriel's feast day was exclusively celebrated on the 18th of March according to many sources dating between the years 1588 and 1921. The feast was included for the first time in the General Roman Calendar in 1921, for celebration on March 24th.

Saint Gabriel is the patron saint of messengers, those who work for broadcasting and telecommunications such as radio and television, postal workers, clerics and diplomats.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

MODERNISM XIV

From Vatican II Exposed as Counterfeit Catholicism by Frs. Francisco and Dominic Radecki, CMRI

AMERICAN MODERNISTS cont'd

American prelates who ruled the Modern Church after the Council were no better than their predecessors: Bernardin, Cody, Timothy Dolan, Egan, George, Gumbleton, Hoffman, Hunthausen, Keeler, Krol, Law, Mahony, Malone, Manning, McCarrick, Pilla, Rigali, Szoka, Skylstad, Untener and Weakland. In the years leading up to Vatican II, many American bishops were chosen for their financial expertise and fund-raising capabilities, not their holiness and ability to defend the Faith and lead their flocks. Many who were exposed to the New Theology and liturgical changes in the seminary, encouraged Modernists ideas at the Second Vatican Council.

There are many villains that one could point to who promoted apostasy in the New Church. One of the major players was Richard Cardinal Cushing, Archbishop of Boston (1895-1970) [My comment]

Cardinal Cushing's close friendship with the Kennedys gave him tremendous power, however, his ecumenical activities ultimately led many to question the importance of Christianity. How could a man who directed the Society of the Propagation of the Faith for 15 years believe all religions are vehicles for salvation? He climbed the ladder quickly, was made a Monsignor on May 14, 1939 and became an Auxiliary Bishop of Boston a month later. Five years later, he was appointed Archbishop of Boston and was made a Cardinal on December 15, 1958. Cushing was an efficient manager who got things done. He built 87 new parishes, opened 18 new high schools, many hospitals and seminaries, and numerous homes for the disabled, orphans and the mentally ill. To remain debt free, each building was paid in full upon completion. Cushing daily raised $20,000 and had over 60 schools, seminaries and convents under his jurisdiction.

THE ECUMENIST

Cardinal Cushing claimed one religion was as good as another and used Catholic institutions to spread Religious Indifferentism throughout his Archdiocese. He was a wolf in sheep's clothing. Cushing:

[1] Met regularly with Orthodox and Protestant clergy; [2] Claimed that religious liberty was based on Catholic Doctrine; [3] Spent much of his time at Vatican II with non-Catholic Observers; [4] Spoke at Protestant churches and joined non-Catholic religious leaders in parades; [5] Encouraged his flock to attend lectures given by Protestant Evangelist, Billy Graham; [6] Was the first Catholic prelate to officially address members of a Freemasonic Lodge in the United States. Others would later follow his example. [7] Promoted religious liberty at Vatican II because he said non-Catholics desired it, and "...its contents exhibited a 'decent respect for the opinions of mankind.'"

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church and when attending any functions at the Chapel:

Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, use a head covering, available in the back of the church for loan or purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
