Ninth Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Luke 19:41-47 At that time, when Jesus drew near to Jerusalem, seeing the city, He wept over it, saying: "If you had known, and that in this your day, even you, the things that are for your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes. For the days shall come upon you when your enemies will throw up a rampart about you and surround you and shut you in on every side, and will dash you to the ground, and your children within you, and will not leave you one stone upon another, because you have not known the time of your visitation." And entering into the temple, He began to cast out them that sold therein and them that bought. Saying to them: "It is written: 'My house is the house of prayer.' But you have made it a den of thieves." And He was teaching daily in the temple.

St. James, also called James, son of Zebedee, or James the Greater, (born, Galilee, Palestine—died 44 AD, Jerusalem; feast day July 25), one of the Twelve Apostles, distinguished as being in Jesus' innermost circle and the only apostle whose martyrdom is recorded in the New Testament (Acts 12:2).

James is styled "the Greater" to distinguish him from the Apostle James "the Less", with greater meaning older or taller, rather than more important. James the Greater was the brother of John the Apostle.

James is described as one of the first disciples to join Jesus. The Synoptic Gospels state that James and John were with their father by the seashore when Jesus called them to follow him. [Matt. 4:21–22] [Mk. 1:19–20]

James was one of only three apostles whom Jesus selected to bear witness to his Transfiguration.

Salome, the mother of James and John asked Jesus to grant them seats on His right and left in His glory. Jesus asked if they were ready to drink from the cup He was going to drink from and said the honor was not even for Him to grant.

James and his younger brother, St. John the Apostle, are designated Boanerges (from the Greek boanerges), or "Sons of Thunder" (Mark 3:17), perhaps because of their characteristic fiery zeal (Mark 9:38 and Luke 9:54). James and his brother wanted to call down fire on a Samaritan town but were rebuked by Jesus.

Following Christ's Ascension, James spread the Gospel across Israel and the Roman kingdom as well. He traveled and spread the Word for many years in Spain.

Later, James returned to Jerusalem but was martyred for his faith, beheaded by order of King Herod Agrippa I of Judaea. According to Spanish tradition, his body was taken to Santiago de Compostela.

Saint James is the patron saint of Spain. The traditional pilgrimage to the grave of the saint, known as the "Way of St. James", has been the most popular pilgrimage for Western European Catholics from the Early Middle Ages onwards. When July 25th falls on a Sunday, it is a "Holy Year" and a special east door is opened for entrance into Santiago Cathedral. In the 2004 Holy Year, 179,944 pilgrims were received at Compostela. In the 2010 Holy Year the number was 272,412 and in 2021 it was 178,912. The next Holy Year is 2027.

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Gregory before the reception of sacraments.*

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church and when attending any functions at the Chapel:

Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, use a head covering, available in the back of the church for loan or purchase.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

John XXIII part 10

THE CLOUDED ELECTION OF JOHN XXIII, pt. 2

Taken from "Vatican II Exposed as Counterfeit Catholicism" by Frs. Francisco and Dominic Radecki, CMRI

Before the 1958 conclave there was wide disagreement among the cardinals since there was no single candidate with sufficient support to win the election. Cardinals who are likely to be chosen as pope are called "papabili." At the time, strong contenders included Cardinals Agagianian (Roman Curia), Lercaro (Bologna), Masella (Roman Curia), Roncalli (Venice), and Siri (Genoa). Modernists considered Ottaviani too conservative, Siri too young, (he was fifty-two years old) and Roncalli amenable to change. Conservatives believed Lercaro too liberal. Electors were strongly divided regarding social leanings and theology.

Many of the progressives [Modernists], as well as some of the uncommitted cardinals would have preferred Archbishop Montini [the future Paul VI] to Roncalli as a candidate for the papacy, because of Montini's long and distinguished diplomatic career.

Montini was not yet a cardinal and therefore ineligible for election. Furthermore, "...his election would have made his extreme ideas so obvious that he might have scared too many and too soon. ...a radical pope like him would have been premature at the time." Only cardinals had been chosen for the previous 568 years.

THE KREMLIN'S CHOICE

For many years Cardinal Agagianian had been one of the favorite candidates of Stalin and the Kremlin because he was born and educated in the Soviet Union. Agagianian was also well liked by Communists in Russia and Italy. However, the Communists chose to take a diplomatic approach by backing Roncalli since he had better chances of guiding the Church towards a pro-Communist program without creating alarm.

From a political point of view, Msgr. Roncalli's opposition to Pius XII's anti-Communist crusades had qualified him, more than anything else, to be their protege.

Leading Communists, including Stalin, responsible for the deaths of between 50-60 million people, and Nikita Khrushchev loved Roncalli because he was a genuine Socialist, worked with liberals and came from peasant lineage. The international media had Roncalli's name on almost everyone's list of "papabili," even if it was not highly placed. Some bookies gave Cardinal Roncalli 2-1 odds of winning. He was the favorite candidate for those well informed, such as Hans Kung. Modernist Dom Lambert Beauduin said, "If they elect Roncalli, all will be saved. He is capable of calling a Council and canonizing ecumenism.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
