Tenth Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Luke 18:9-14 At that time, Jesus spoke this parable also to some who trusted in themselves as just and despised others. "Two men went up into the temple to pray: the one a Pharisee and the other a publican. The Pharisee standing, prayed thus with himself: 'O God, I give thee thanks that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, as also is this publican. I fast twice in a week: I give tithes of all that I possess.' And the publican, standing afar off, would not so much as lift up his eyes towards heaven; but struck his breast, saying: 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I say to you, this man went down into his house justified rather than the other: because everyone that exalts himself shall be humbled: and he that humbles himself shall be exalted."

Saint Ignatius of Loyola (23 October 1491 – 31 July 1556) was the youngest of 13 children from a family of minor nobility in northern Spain. As a young man Ignatius was inflamed by the ideals of courtly love and knighthood and dreamed of doing great things.

In 1521 Ignatius was seriously wounded in a battle with the French. While recuperating, he experienced a conversion. Reading the lives of Jesus and the saints made Ignatius happy. St. Ignatius had always dreamed of imitating heroic deeds, but now, the heroes had names like Francis of Assisi and Catherine of Siena. St. Ignatius also noticed something strange happening to him, God, he realized, was working within him. St. Ignatius realized that these feelings were clues to God's direction for him. As he traveled far and wide these experiences would prove to be the beginnings of Ignatian spirituality — and Jesuit ministry.

He became a Spanish Basque Catholic priest and theologian, who co-founded the religious order called the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) and became its first Superior General at Paris in 1541. The Jesuit order served the Pope as missionaries, and they were bound by a vow of special obedience to the sovereign pontiff in regard to the missions. They therefore emerged as an important force during the time of the Counter-Reformation.

St. Ignatius is remembered as a talented spiritual director. He recorded his method in a celebrated treatise called the Spiritual Exercises, a simple set of meditations, prayers, and other mental exercises, first published in 1548.

St. Ignatius died in Rome on 31 July 1556, as a result of the Roman Fever, a severe case of malaria that recurred in Rome, Italy, at different points in history. An autopsy revealed that he also had several kidney and bladder stones, a probable cause of the abdominal pains he suffered from later in life. He was placed in a wooden shrine and his body was then covered with his priestly garments. On 1 August the shrine was then buried in the small Maria della Strada Church. In 1568 that church was pulled down and replaced with the Church of the Gesù. Saint Ignatius was put into a new coffin and reinterred in the new church.

St. Ignatius was beatified in 1609, and then canonized, receiving the title of Saint on 12 March 1622. His feast day is celebrated on 31 July.

He is the patron saint of the Basque provinces of Gipuzkoa and Biscay as well as the Society of Jesus and was declared patron saint of all spiritual retreats by Pope Pius XI in 1922. St. Ignatius is also a foremost patron saint of soldiers.

Prayer of St. Ignatius ~ "Take, Lord, receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, my whole will, all that I have and all that I possess. You gave it all to me, Lord; I give it all back to You. Do with it as You will, according to Your good pleasure. Give me Your love and Your grace; for with this I have all that I need."

Prayer to Know God's Will ~ "May it please the supreme and divine Goodness to give us all abundant grace, ever to know His most holy will and perfectly to fulfill it." —St. Ignatius of Loyola
(This prayer was added to the end of many letters St. Ignatius wrote.)

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church and when attending any functions at the Chapel:

Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, use a head covering, available in the back of the church for loan or purchase.

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Gregory before the reception of sacraments.*

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

JOHN XXIII part 11

THE CLOUDED ELECTION OF JOHN XXIII part 3

From "Vatican II Exposed as Counterfeit Catholicism" by Frs. Francisco and Dominic Radecki, CMRI

VOTING BEGINS

Cardinal Roncalli told Venetians to stop mourning the death of Pope Pius XII. "Come on now. When a Pope is dead they make another one." His letter to the Bishop of Bergamo written during the conclave gives a premonition of future events:

My soul finds comfort in the confidence that a new Pentecost can blow through the Church, renewing its head, leading to a new ordering of the ecclesiastical body.

When the voting began, the cardinals knelt before the altar to place their ballot in a silver chalice and said, "I call Christ the Lord as Witness, Who is to judge me, that I choose him who I think ought to be chosen by God." Cardinal Roncalli at the age of 77 was elected on the eleventh ballot on October 28, 1958.

Since all the cardinals who attended the conclave are dead and did not publicly disclose the mysterious events that occurred, it is impossible to know precisely how this happened. Many facts cannot be known with absolute certainty because ballots are immediately burned and everything in the election of a pope is done with absolute secrecy. Cardinals and their assistants are required by oath not to reveal the voting results to anyone. However, some information has leaked out because a few of the attendees divulged various details.

Because he trusted Bishop Sheen, "John XXIII told him the inside story of his selection as Pope and swore him to secrecy." Alden Hatch in "A Man Named John," wrote:

The secrets of the conclave have been well kept, perhaps due to the stern insistence of Pope John XXIII. All that is definitely known are the unimportant details, which in the jargon of generals are 'unclassified.'

Subsequently, many theories circulated due to suspicious events surrounding the conclave. Of the 51 cardinal electors, it is believed that there were 25 Traditionalists, 17 Modernists and 9 neutrals. If these numbers are correct, even if all the neutral cardinals joined the larger group of Traditionalists, it would not be enough votes because 35 were required to elect a new pope. It is presumed that at first neither side could get the necessary votes.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
