GOSPEL for the 16th Sunday After Pentecost Luke 14:1-11 At that time, when Jesus went into the house of one of the chiefs of the Pharisees on the Sabbath-day to eat bread, they watched Him. And behold there was a certain man before Him that had the dropsy. And Jesus answering spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying: Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath-day? But they held their peace. But He taking him, healed him, and sent him away. And answering them, He said: Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fall into a pit and will not immediately draw him out on the Sabbath-day? And they could not answer Him to these things. And He spoke a parable also to them that were invited, marking how they chose the first seats at the table, saying to them when thou art invited to a wedding, sit not down in the first place, lest perhaps one more honorable than thou be invited by him; and he that invited thee come and say to thee: Give this man place: and then thou begin with shame to take the lowest place: But when thou art invited, go, sit down in the lowest place: that when he who invited thee cometh he may say to thee: Friend, go up higher. Then shalt thou have glory before them that sit at the table with thee; because everyone that exalts himself shall be humbled, and he that humbles himself shall be exalted."

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church and when attending any functions at the Chapel:

Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, use a head covering, available in the back of the church for loan or purchase.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

JOHN XXIII part 17

From "Vatican II Exposed as Counterfeit Catholicism" by Frs. Francisco and Dominic Radecki, CMRI

THE MODERNIST

Since the nineteenth century, Modernists have successfully attacked the Church from inside like a deadly cancer. Even though Modernist heresy has been condemned by the Church, more and more liberal-minded clerics and lay people have fallen under its spell and their sphere of action and power has increased. They have reached the highest offices in the Church, culminating in the very office of the papacy.

John XXIII did not fulfill the customary role of a Supreme Pontiff of teaching the flock, condemning heresy and protecting the sheep from wolves (heretics). He was a cunning revolutionary, not the defender of Sacred Scripture and Apostolic Tradition. John XXIII was two-faced, never revealing his intentions, yet still craftily bringing them to fruition.

PREPARING FOR THE COUNCIL

On January 25, 1959, John XXIII disclosed several major projects: a diocesan synod in Rome, an ecumenical council and a total revision of Canon Law. After a year of preparation, the Roman Synod was held from January 24-31, 1960. It included 1,300 clergy and served as a rehearsal for the Second Vatican Council. The media predicted that the synod would "make basic changes in religious practices and in some deeply rooted customs."

Many subjects that would be discussed during Vatican II were brought to the floor during the synod including the role of clergy (priests and bishops), the teaching office of the Church, the liturgy, the sacraments, the apostolate, and Christian education. Vatican II helped form a new liturgy and officially taught Modernism and Ecumenism. On March 28, 1962, John XXIII established a pontifical commission to "revise" Church law to reflect the new beliefs.

On June 30, 1962, the Holy Office issued a monitum (warning) condemning the ambiguities and grave errors against Catholic doctrine contained in the writings of the Modernist Teilhard de Chardin. John XXIII, on the contrary, defended Chardin and stated, "publicly during an audience that 'this measure is regrettable.'" He even discussed the importance of Chardin's writings with the Post-President Leopold Sedar Senghor of Senegal.

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Gregory before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
