Twenty Fourth Sunday After Pentecost (Fourth Sunday After Epiphany)

GOSPEL Matt. 8, 23-27 At that time, when Jesus entered into the boat, his disciples followed him. And behold, a great tempest arose in the sea, so that the boat was covered with waves; but he was asleep. And they came to him and awaked him, saying: Lord, save us, we perish. And Jesus saith to them Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then rising up, he commanded the winds and the sea, and there came a great calm. But the men wondered, saying: What manner of man is this, for the winds and the sea obey him?

November - Month of The Faithful Departed

FOR THE SOULS OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Eternal rest grant upon them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace.
Amen

As we quickly come to the end of this Liturgical Year and anticipate the upcoming Advent Season, it is good for us to be reminded that this month of November has been set aside for us to remember the Faithful Departed.

The Church has a rich tradition in remembering those who have gone before us and continues to challenge us to remain faithful in fulfilling the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy.

Two of the works of mercy should ring true for us during this month of November. As in regard to a "spiritual" work of mercy, we are to pray for the Faithful Departed.

We do this by praying traditional prayers for the Poor Souls in Purgatory. Yes, the Church still teaches the Doctrine of Purgatory. Of course, beyond our personal prayers, including the Rosary, the perfect prayer that can be offered by the Church for the living and for those who have died, is the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

In regard to the "corporal" work of mercy for our deceased brothers and sisters, there is the duty to give the faithful departed a dignified Christian burial.

It is an interesting realization that what we focus upon during the month of November, the commemoration of the Faithful Departed, finds a place and purpose throughout the whole Liturgical Year of the Church.

Really, praying for the Faithful Departed should not be confined to a specific month. It naturally moves within the church year in the midst of its grace filled seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter and Time after Pentecost. Let us remember that throughout the entire year the dynamic of "dying and rising" is ever present among us and praying for the Faithful Departed is a constant call to charity out of love for them.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them.

This year marks the 30th anniversary of Holy Family Chapel at its present location and its 43rd year of service to traditional Catholics in this area.

Thanks be to God the Chapel has enjoyed a blessed and prosperous existence for 4 decades.

In order to preserve and grow the Catholic faith, given the challenges of the times we live in, we must pray for Divine assistance and plan for the next decades to come.

Kindly volunteer where needed and embrace new initiatives as they are introduced to move forward.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of respect for the True Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and for the edification of our neighbor, we kindly request that all who come to our parish observe the basic traditional Catholic standards of dress for church attendance and to receive communion at the communion rail:

Women and girls must cover their heads. (Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule.)

Women and girls must wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting. Slacks, jeans, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing, and dresses or skirts with long slits above the knees are not permitted.

It is recommended for men and boys to wear suit coats and ties for Sunday Mass.

Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at church.

Open Letter to American Catholics on the eve of 2024 Presidential Election

This is an excerpt from Noteworthy News. Full article available on the website, www.holyfamilyvtcc.org

The great march of mental destruction will go on. Everything will be denied. [...]
Fires will be kindled to testify that two and two make four.
Swords will be drawn to prove that leaves are green in summer.
G.K. Chesterton, Heretics, 1905

Dear Faithful American Catholics,

I am addressing all of you, a few days before the Presidential Election that will call millions of American citizens to the polls. Even in conditions of relative normality, the exercise of the vote is your moral duty, through which you cooperate in the first person in choosing the person who will lead the Nation for the next four years. But in this coming electoral round – just as in 2020 and indeed much more so – you are not simply called to choose between two candidates who happen to be on different political sides but who both nevertheless have the common good at heart in compliance with the Constitution and the Law. No; in this election you must choose between two radically opposed ways of conceiving the government of your Nation: you are called to choose between democracy and dictatorship, between freedom and slavery.

On one side we have candidate Donald J. Trump, who, despite serious problems in his positions – especially in the matter of abortion and assisted procreation – has as his objective the common good and the protection of the fundamental freedoms of citizens. In Donald Trump's America, every Catholic can practice their Faith and educate their children in it without interference from the State. On the other side we have a candidate and a party that promotes everything that directly opposes the Faith and Morals of the Catholic Church. In Kamala Harris' America, Catholics – but also Protestants – are considered fundamentalists to be marginalized and eliminated, and their children are considered the property of the State, which arrogates to itself the right to lead them astray from an early age in both body and soul. Trump's America can become great and prosperous again. Harris' America is destined for invasion and for moral, social, and economic destruction: the most ferocious dictatorship.

Look at your country! Your cities have become dumps filled with derelicts and criminals, drug dealers and addicts, prostitutes and robbers. Your schools are dens of indoctrination and corruption from kindergarten onwards. In your courts, criminals are acquitted, and innocents are imprisoned: new ideological crimes are prosecuted, while illegality is tolerated and encouraged. In your hospitals, multinational corporations rule, and you are their guinea pigs to be exterminated or made chronically ill so that you will be their perpetual clients. Farmers, ranchers, and fishermen are persecuted and forced to fail, while the land is grabbed by unscrupulous corporations who transform it into endless photovoltaic systems and wind turbines to power their data centers and server farms where they collect all your data, your movements, your purchases, and your political preferences. They have gone so far as to tamper with the climate by means of sophisticated geoengineering operations and devastating arson in order to make the global warming fraud credible and impose the green transition, the increase in the cost of energy, and electric cars and scooters. And all this is done based on evidence that consists of lies without any scientific proof, but which are propagated through the servile collaboration of the regime media, ever ready to label any dissenters as conspiracy theorists. But what until yesterday was dismissed as the result of conspiracy theories is now admitted by the government itself. They take away your sunlight; they poison you by seeding the clouds; they overwhelm your villages and your fields with deadly hurricanes; they kill your livestock and dry up your crops with induced droughts and devastating fires. They aim to control the entire food sector, to force you to eat only what they make available to you. This is what the Agenda 2030 calls for, which has been imposed without any vote by the United Nations and the World Economic Forum...

Think of how many of you Catholics there are in the United States! Vote without hesitation and pray that Our Lord will enlighten American citizens in making their choice and grant victory to those who, at least, have no problem proclaiming that Christ is Lord. May God bless you all, and may the Virgin of Guadalupe, she who is the Patroness of the United States and all the Americas, and Saint Michael the Archangel, protect you.

Carlo Maria Viganò, Archbishop, former Apostolic Nuncio to the United States of America
October 22, 2024

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
