Third Sunday in Lent

March 23, 2025

We gladly welcome visitors and newcomers.

At the same time, we respectfully remind you that to receive Our Lord in Holy Communion, one must be:

A baptized Catholic free from any mortal sin committed since one's last Confession.

Fasting for three hours from any food and/or alcoholic beverage.

One hour from any other beverage except water.

Praying in Silence

Kindly maintain prayerful silence both before and after all Masses.

Please respect the needs of fellow parishioners to spend time quietly in the church in uninterrupted prayer. Everyone is asked to take all conversations outside the building or into the church hall where conversations are welcome.

Mass Intentions will be posted in the bulletin once daily Mass resumes.

All Mass Intentions that are put in the designated container at the back of the church will be collected by the priests and said at their daily Masses.

Third Sunday in Lent

GOSPEL Luke 11:14-28 At that time, Jesus was casting out a devil: and the same was dumb. And when He had cast out the devil, the dumb spoke: and the multitudes, were in admiration at it. But some of them said: "He cast out devils by Beelzebub, the prince of devils." And others tempting, asked of Him a sign from heaven. But He, seeing their thoughts, said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself shall be brought to desolation; and house upon house shall fall. And if Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? Because you say that through Beelzebub I cast out devils. Now if I cast out devils by Beelzebub, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore, they shall be your judges. But if I by the finger of God cast out devils, doubtless the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed keeps his court, those things are in peace which he possesses. But if a stronger than he come upon him and overcomes him, he will take away all his armor wherein he trusted and will distribute his spoils. He that is not with Me is against Me; and he that gathers not with Me scatters. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walks through places without water, seeking rest: and not finding, he says: I will return into my house whence I came out. And when he is come, he finds it swept and garnished. Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself: and entering in they dwell there. And the last state of that man becomes worse than the first."

And it came to pass, as He spoke these things, a certain woman from the crowd, lifting up her voice, said to Him: "Blessed is the womb that bore You and the breasts that nursed You." But He said: "Rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God and keep it."

*Following confirmation conferred today,
by Bishop M. Pivarunas, CMRI, all are invited to join in a potluck breakfast reception and cake in the church social hall to congratulate the confirmandi and visit with His Excellency.*

We are told that angels have many roles. A few of them include being God's messengers and Holy warriors, watching history unfold, praising and worshipping God, and being Guardian Angels – protecting and directing people on God's behalf.

The Bible tells us that God's angels are delivering messages, accompanying the lonely, granting protection and even fighting His battles. Angels who were sent to deliver messages began by saying "Do not be afraid," or "Do not fear."

The Angel Gabriel is a messenger who was entrusted to deliver several important messages on God's behalf. Gabriel appears to at least three people in the Bible: first to the prophet Daniel (Daniel 8:16); next to the priest Zechariah to foretell and announce the miraculous birth of John the Baptist (Luke 1:19); and finally to the virgin Mary to tell her that she would conceive and bear a son (Luke 1:26–38).

Gabriel's name means "God is great," and, as the angel of the annunciation, he is the one who revealed that the Savior was to be called "Jesus" (Luke 1:31)

In all three appearances, Gabriel was met with fear, and he had to begin his conversations with words of comfort and cheer for Daniel, Zechariah, and Mary. It is possible that Gabriel was also the angel that appeared to Joseph in Matthew 1:20, but this is not certain, since that angel is unnamed in Scripture. What we do know is that Gabriel is one of God's good and holy angels. He has a favored position as an angel who "stands in the presence of God" (Luke 1:19), and he was selected to deliver important messages of God's particular love and favor to individuals chosen to be part of God's plan.

The Angel Gabriel or Saint Gabriel's feast day was exclusively celebrated on the 18th of March according to many sources dating between the years 1588 and 1921. The feast was included for the first time in the General Roman Calendar in 1921, for celebration on March 24th.

Saint Gabriel is the patron saint of messengers, those who work for broadcasting and telecommunications such as radio and television, postal workers, clerics and diplomats.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of respect for the True Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and for the edification of our neighbor, we kindly request that all who come to our parish observe the basic traditional Catholic standards of dress for church attendance and to receive communion at the communion rail:

Women and girls must cover their heads. (Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan or purchase in the vestibule.)

Women and girls must wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting. Slacks, jeans, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing, and dresses or skirts with long slits above the knees are not permitted.

It is recommended for men and boys to wear suit coats and ties for Sunday Mass.

Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at church.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- We would like to extend a warm welcome to Bishop Mark A. Pivarunas, CMRI
- Confirmation will be conferred TODAY, followed by a celebration in the church hall with cake and a potluck breakfast.
- Kindly sign-up to spend one hour in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament. The sign-up sheet is located at the back of the church on the bookshelf.
- The church website is updated frequently and reflects all upcoming events and Mass times. You can also find suggested readings from Fr. Molina both for general reflection and specifically for the Lenten season.
- During the month of March, we will pray the Litany of St. Joseph at the end of Mass.
- On Fridays during Lent, Stations of the Cross will be held at 7 PM.
- The Altar & Rosary Society will hold their annual Easter bake sale on Sunday, April 13th following the Mass.
- Join fellow parishioners every Tuesday at 3 PM in the church to recite fifteen decades of the rosary. Our intentions are to ask God and his Blessed Mother for their protection of our country and our church against the force which is trying to destroy us.
- In your kindness, please remember to pray for those listed on the Memorial Page, and all deceased members of the chapel.
- New to the Tridentine Mass, you may find the grey or green paperback missals found in the pews helpful in following the Mass.
- Visit our websites. Both the church and school web addresses can be found in the bulletin.

EASTER DUTY

All the faithful who have reached the use of reason are gravely obliged to receive Holy Communion worthily at least once during the Easter season. In the United States, this extends from the first Sunday of Lent to Trinity Sunday (the Sunday after Pentecost).

Suggested Readings from Fr. Molina for Lent

On the Passion of Jesus Christ and The Passion and the Death of Jesus Christ, (both by St. Alphonsus de Liguori)
The Tragedy of Calvary (Fr. J. L. Meagher)
The Passion and Death of Our Lord Jesus Christ (Fr. A. Goodier)
The Dolorous Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ (Bl. Anne Catherine Emmerich)
The Foot of the Cross or The Sorrows of Mary (Fr. F. W. Faber)

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Come adore the Lord for one hour or more in Eucharistic Adoration. Adoration is when a consecrated host is placed in a monstrance (from the Latin monstrare, to show or view) for adoration (for us to adore Him).

Adoration is a silent time for you to be alone with Jesus to recite your favorite prayers, say the rosary, read the bible, contemplate acts of faith, hope, charity, thanksgiving or reparation, or do whatever type of prayerful devotion that suits you before our Lord. You can sit quietly and say nothing, just keeping Him company like you would with a dear friend.

Day and night Jesus dwells in the Blessed Sacrament because you are the most important person in the world to Him. Stay for one hour. Feel His love and His peace!

"Be still and know that I am God." — Psalm 46

The Most Blessed Sacrament will be exposed upon the altar on April 17th, Holy Thursday from 7:00 pm until 10 am, April 18th, Good Friday morning. We must have at least two people present during each hour as the Most Blessed Sacrament may not be left alone while exposed. Sign up sheet is available at the back of the church on the bookshelf. May you receive many blessings during Adoration.

~ Holy Family School OPEN HOUSE - Sunday, May 4th from 12noon to 2pm ~

The open house for Holy Family School is scheduled for May 4th from 12noon-2pm. The first day of school is planned for August 11, 2025. Tuition is affordable and tuition assistance is available, either can be discussed at the open house. We look forward to seeing you there!
