Easter Sunday

GOSPEL (Mark 16:1-7) At that time, Mary Magdalen and Mary the mother of James and Salome bought sweet spices, that coming, they might anoint Jesus. And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came to the tomb, the sun being now risen. And they said one to another: "Who shall roll us back the stone from the door of the tomb?" And looking, they saw the stone rolled back. For it was very great. And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed with a white robe: and they were astonished. Who said to them: "Be not afraid. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, Who was crucified. He is risen; He is not here. Behold the place where they laid Him. But go, tell His disciples and Peter that He goes before you into Galilee. There you shall see Him, as He told you."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- We would like to extend a Warm Welcome and Sincere Thank You to Fr. Aloysius Hartman for serving Holy Family during Holy week.
- Easter Duty ~ All the faithful who have reached the use of reason are gravely obliged to receive Holy Communion worthily at least once during the Easter season. In the United States, this extends from the first Sunday of Lent to Trinity Sunday (the Sunday after Pentecost).
- Holy Family School OPEN HOUSE - Sunday, May 4th from 12noon to 2pm
- Young Ladies of the parish are invited to participate in the May Crowning procession of Our Lady on Sunday, May 4th. Please wear a light-colored dress and meet in the vestibule at the back of the church by 3:30 PM.
- First Holy Communion will take place at the 4 PM Mass on Sunday, May 4th.
- Join fellow parishioners every Tuesday at 3 PM in the church to recite fifteen decades of the rosary. Our intentions are to ask God and his Blessed Mother for their protection of our country and our church against the force which is trying to destroy us.
- In your kindness, please remember to pray for those listed on the Memorial Page, and all deceased members of the chapel.
- New to the Tridentine Mass, you may find the grey or green paperback missals found in the pews helpful in following the Mass.
- The church website is updated frequently and reflects all upcoming events and Mass times. You can also find suggested readings from Fr. Molina for general reflection.
- We are a smoke free church. No Smoking or Vaping Within 25 Feet of the church and school buildings is allowed.
- No refreshments will be served today.

~ Holy Family School OPEN HOUSE - Sunday, May 4th from 12noon to 2pm ~

You are invited to visit Holy Family School on May 4th from 12noon-2pm.
The first day of school is planned for August 11, 2025. Tuition is affordable and tuition assistance is available, either can be discussed at the open house. We look forward to seeing you there!
Holy Family School Board members: Ken Peldunas and Tricia Coburn. Contact Number : 321-615-2850

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of respect for the True Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and for the edification of our neighbor, we kindly request that all who come to our parish observe the basic traditional Catholic standards of dress for church attendance and to receive communion at the communion rail:

Women and girls must cover their heads. (Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan or purchase in the vestibule.)
Women and girls must wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting. Slacks, jeans, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing, and dresses or skirts with long slits above the knees are not permitted.
It is recommended for men and boys to wear suit coats and ties for Sunday Mass.
Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at church.

Easter Sunday

The Resurrection of Our Lord by Bishop Mark A. Pivarunas, CMRI

The Resurrection of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is the greatest and most glorious feast of the entire ecclesiastical year, just as the Passover was the greatest feast for the Israelites in the Old Testament.

The reason for this is quite simple: the Resurrection of Our Lord is the very foundation of Christianity. For if, after His death, Jesus had not risen, who would have had faith in Him as the promised Messiah, the Redeemer, the Son of God? If Jesus had not risen, there would be no Christianity today. If Jesus Christ had not risen, His Apostles and disciples would not have gone forth to preach about His life, death and Resurrection, sealing the truth of their testimony with their very blood.

Nevertheless, the Apostles and disciples of Christ did testify, even to the point of the supreme sacrifice of their lives, that they indeed witnessed Jesus Christ risen from the dead. Humanly speaking, Our Lord's Apostles and disciples had absolutely nothing to gain and everything to lose by preaching Christ and His Resurrection. So why did they? They did so for the simple reason that they had witnessed His Resurrection.

The secondary reason that the Resurrection of Jesus Christ is the greatest feast of the Church is that it was the most stupendous of all His miracles. When we read in the Gospels of the miracles of Our Lord, we can see that they were worked in a manner so public, so manifest and so obvious that there was no room for doubt or suspicion. Many of these miracles were witnessed by large numbers of people, even by the scribes and Pharisees. And when the Apostles and disciples went out "to teach all nations," they addressed a people who were contemporary with the events that had taken place. The life, teachings and miracles of Jesus Christ were well known to the people of Palestine. The supernatural events recorded in the Gospels are so numerous and so spectacular that there can be no room for fraud or deceit. It would have been utterly impossible for the Apostles and disciples of Jesus Christ to successfully preach the wonderful miracles of Christ unless they actually took place.

When we examine the manner in which Jesus rose from the dead, we can only marvel at the infinite wisdom of God in all of the circumstances that surrounded His Resurrection, and which have provided and will provide to all men for all times the clear and undeniable evidence that Jesus Christ truly is the Son of God, the promised Messiah, the Redeemer of the world.

Our Divine Savior sacrificed Himself on the altar of the Cross and became "the Lamb of God" Who would take away the sins of the world. When we consider the manner in which Christ suffered and died, we can see how this served to make His Resurrection all the more glorious. His Passion and Death were most cruel, humiliating and ignominious. He died between two thieves, with His hands and feet nailed to the Cross, with His Sacred Head crowned with thorns, and with the mocking inscription, "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews." And to add insult to injury, the Pharisees and passers-by taunted Our Lord as He hung on the Cross:

"Now the passers-by were jeering at Him, shaking their heads and saying, 'Thou who destroyest the temple, and in three days buildest it up again, save Thyself! If Thou art the Son of God, come down from the cross!'" (Matt. 27:29-40).

In like manner, the chief priests with the Scribes and the elders, mocking, said, 'He saved others, Himself He cannot save! If He is the King of Israel, let Him come down from the cross, and we will believe Him. He trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now, if He wants Him; for He said, "'I am the Son of God'"' (Matt. 27:41-44).

"Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe" (Mark 15:31).

When Jesus died on the Cross, to all outward appearances, it seemed as if the Scribes and Pharisees had finally succeeded in His destruction. Little did they know that this was not the end of Christ and His teachings. For on the third day, as He had foretold, Jesus rose from the dead. He appeared to His beloved Mother, the ever-Virgin Mary, to the holy women, who had remained faithful to Him, even to the foot of the Cross, and finally, to His Apostles. During the forty days that followed, Jesus frequently appeared to His Apostles and disciples to confirm their faith. Thus, it is that we have the greatest certitude that indeed Jesus Christ is the Son of God.

On this feast of Our Lord's Resurrection, as we renew the promises we made at our Baptism to renounce Satan, his pomps and his works, and to be faithful to our Divine Savior Jesus Christ, let us be resolved, as St. Paul exhorts us, to be spiritually risen to a new life in Christ, "free from sin" and "pursuing good works."

In Christo Jesu et Maria Immaculata,
Most Rev. Mark A. Pivarunas, CMRI

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
