Fourth Sunday after Easter

GOSPEL John 16:5-14 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "I go to Him that sent Me, and none of you asks Me: 'Whither goest thou?' But because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. But I tell you the truth: it is expedient to you that I go. For if I go not, the Paraclete will not come to you: but if I go, I will send Him to you. And when He comes, He will convince the world of sin and of justice and of judgment. Of sin: because they believed not in Me. And of justice: because I go to the Father: and you shall see Me no longer. And of judgment: because the Prince of this world is already judged. "I have yet many things to say to you: but you cannot bear them now. But when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will teach you all truth. For He shall not speak of Himself: but what things so ever He shall hear, He shall speak. And the things that are to come, He shall show you. He shall glorify Me: because He shall receive of what is Mine and declare it to you."

A Prayer in Honor of the Queenship of Mary to be recited at the end of Mass during the month of May

O Mary Immaculate Queen, look down upon this poor, distressed and suffering world. Thou knowest our misery and our weakness. O thou who art our Mother, saving us in the hour of peril, have compassion on us in these days of great and heavy trial.

Jesus has given thee entire power over all humanity; He has confided to thee the treasures of His grace, and through thee He wills to grant us pardon and mercy. In these hours of anguish, therefore, thy children come to thee as to their only hope. We recognize thy universal royalty and ardently desire thy triumph.

We need a Mother and a Mother's Heart. Be for us the luminous dawn which dissipates our darkness and points out the way to life. Be thou the ever flowing source from which we draw courage, confidence and love – the bond uniting all men and the sign of peace. Amen.

Gospel Commentary: He will convince the world of sin. "And when He has come, He will convince the world of sin, . . . because they believed not in Me" (Gospel). Unbelief was the great sin of the Jews. In spite of the prophecies of the Old Testament, which Christ manifestly fulfilled, in spite of His evident miracles, in spite of His resurrection on Easter morning, of which they themselves were the reluctant witnesses, the Jews refused to believe. Therefore, after our Lord's ascension into heaven, it was part of the mission of the Holy Ghost to convince the world that the Jews erred in not accepting Christ. This was their great sin: the sin of unbelief. The Holy Ghost worked through the apostles. On Pentecost He descended upon the apostles and called them to act as witnesses of Christ's resurrection. Emboldened by the power of the Holy Ghost, Peter faces the multitude of people in Jerusalem and declares: "This Jesus hath God raised again, whereof all we are witnesses" (Acts 2:32). The Holy Ghost brings about a complete transformation in the apostles. They had been timid, but now they are filled with indomitable courage and holy daring. They had been slow of understanding, but now they are filled with divine wisdom and speak a language which they had not learned. They had deserted their Lord and Master during His passion, and Peter had even denied Him; but now they are the intrepid teachers of His doctrine and the heralds of His resurrection. But the Holy Ghost assists them in other ways, too; for He gives them the power to work miracles, the reality which no one can deny, and the significance of which no one can misconstrue. Thus, the Holy Ghost convinces the world that the failure to accept the Christ whom the apostles preach is a terrible sin. We stand amazed at these works of the Holy Ghost in the apostles, and rejoice for Christ, whom the apostles bear witness to by the power of the Holy Ghost. "This is the stone, which was rejected by you the builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other. For there is no other name under heaven given to men whereby we must be saved (Acts 4:11.). The Holy Ghost operates in the Church of Christ. He gives her holiness and the gift of miracles. A Church, which produces saints, bears the stamp of God's approval. The Holy Ghost has placed this unmistakable seal on the Church of Christ, for He produces in the Church the heroism of perfect love for God and man. "By this shall all men know that you are My disciples, if you have love one for another" (John 13:35). The doctrine of the Church is holy; her moral practices are holy; her sacraments are holy; her prayer and her liturgy are holy. The life of her children is saintly, and she has produced millions of saints for heaven. Many of her children on earth have reached a high degree of sanctity, and all of this holiness is due to the operation of the Holy Ghost. Every man must acknowledge this Church as the true Church, as the Church established by Christ and sanctified by the Holy Ghost. Baur

MAY 14, 2026 ~ Feast of the Ascension ~ HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION ~ MASS 9:00 AM & 7:00 PM

The fortieth day after Easter Sunday, commemorates the Ascension of Christ into heaven. In the Eastern Church this feast was known as analepsis, the taking up, and also as the episozomene, the salvation—denoting that by ascending into His glory, Christ completed the work of our redemption.

The terms used in the West, ascensio and, occasionally, ascensa, signify that Christ was raised up by His own powers. Tradition designates Mount Olivet near Bethany as the place where Christ ascended from earth. The feast falls on Thursday. It is one of the feasts ranking with the feasts of the Passion, Easter and Pentecost among the most solemn in the calendar. It has a vigil and since the fifteenth century, an octave which is set apart for a novena of preparation for Pentecost, in accordance with the directions of Leo XIII.

Saint Robert Bellarmine, S.J. ~ Bishop, Confessor and Doctor of the Church

Roberto Francesco Romolo Bellarmino – (4 October 1542 – 17 September 1621) He was born at Montepulciano, the son of noble, albeit impoverished, parents, Vincenzo Bellarmino and his wife Cinzia Cervini, who was the sister of Pope Marcellus II. As a boy he knew Virgil by heart and composed a number of poems in Italian and Latin. One of his hymns, on Mary Magdalene, is included in the Roman Breviary.

He entered the Roman Jesuit novitiate in 1560, remaining in Rome three years. He then went to a Jesuit house at Mondovì, where he learned Greek. While at Mondovì, he came to the attention of Francesco Adorno, the local Jesuit Provincial Superior, who sent him to the University of Padua. In 1569 he was sent to finish his studies at the University of Leuven in Flanders. There he was ordained and obtained a reputation both as a professor and as a preacher. He was the first Jesuit to teach at the university, where the subject of his course was the Summa Theologica of Thomas Aquinas.

In poor health, in 1576 he made a journey to Italy. Here he remained, commissioned by Pope Gregory XIII to lecture on polemical theology in the new Roman College, now known as the Pontifical Gregorian University. Later, he would promote the cause of the beatification of Aloysius Gonzaga, who had been a student at the college during Bellarmine's tenure.

St. Bellarmine was made rector of the Roman College in 1592, examiner of bishops in 1598, and cardinal in 1599. Immediately after his appointment as Cardinal, Pope Clement made him a Cardinal Inquisitor.

Upon the death of Pope Sixtus V in 1590, the Count of Olivares wrote to King Philip III of Spain, "Bellarmine ... would not do for a Pope, for he is mindful only of the interests of the Church and is unresponsive to the reasons of princes." In 1602 he was made archbishop of Capua. As bishop he put into effect the reforming decrees of the Council of Trent. He received some votes in the 1605 conclaves which elected Pope Leo XI, and 37 days later, Pope Paul V, and in 1621 when Pope Gregory XV was elected, but him being a Jesuit stood against him in the judgment of many of the cardinals.

St. Bellarmine's books bear the stamp of their period; the effort for literary elegance (so-called "maraviglia") had given place to a desire to pile up as much material as possible, to embrace the whole field of human knowledge, and incorporate it into theology. His controversial works provoked many replies and were studied for some decades after his death. At Leuven he made extensive studies of the Church Fathers and scholastic theologians, which gave him the material for his book De scriptoribus ecclesiasticis (Rome, 1613). He wrote the preface to the new Sixto-Clementine Vulgate. St. Bellarmine also prepared for posterity his very own commentary on each of the Psalms. An English translation from the Latin was published in 1866.

St. Bellarmine retired to the Jesuit college of St. Andrew in Rome. During his retirement, he wrote several short books intended to help ordinary people in their spiritual life: De ascensione mentis in Deum per scalas rerum creatorum opusculum (The Mind's Ascent to God – 1614) which was translated into English as Jacob's Ladder (1638). The Art of Dying Well (1619) (in Latin, English translation under this title by Edward Coffin) and The Seven Words on the Cross.

St. Bellarmine died on 17 September 1621, aged 78. He was beatified on 13 May 1923, canonized a saint in 1930 and named Doctor of the Church, one of only 36. He was one of the most important figures in the Counter-Reformation. His feast day is May 13th.

We gladly welcome visitors and newcomers. At the same time, we respectfully remind you that to receive Our Lord in Holy Communion, one must be:
A baptized Catholic free from any mortal sin committed since one's last Confession. Fasting for three hours from any food and/or alcoholic beverage.
One hour from any other beverage except water.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of respect for the True Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and for the edification of our neighbor, we kindly request that all who come to our parish observe the basic traditional Catholic standards of dress for church attendance and to receive communion at the communion rail:

Women and girls must cover their heads. (Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan or purchase in the vestibule.)

Women and girls must wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting. Slacks, jeans, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing, and dresses or skirts with long slits above the knees are not permitted.

It is recommended for men and boys to wear suit coats and ties for Sunday Mass.

Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at church.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
