Sunday after Ascension

GOSPEL John 15:26-27; 16:1-4 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "When the Paraclete has come, Whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth Who proceeds from the Father, He shall give testimony of Me. And you shall give testimony because you are with Me from the beginning." These things have I spoken to you that you may not be scandalized. They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the hour is coming, that whosoever kills you will think that he is offering worship to God. And these things will they do to you because they have not known the Father nor Me. But these things I have told you, that when the hour shall come, you may remember that I told you of them."

A Prayer in Honor of the Queenship of Mary

to be recited at the end of Mass during the month of May

O Mary Immaculate Queen, look down upon this poor, distressed and suffering world. Thou knowest our misery and our weakness. O thou who art our Mother, saving us in the hour of peril, have compassion on us in these days of great and heavy trial.

Jesus has given thee entire power over all humanity; He has confided to thee the treasures of His grace, and through thee He wills to grant us pardon and mercy. In these hours of anguish, therefore, thy children come to thee as to their only hope. We recognize thy universal royalty and ardently desire thy triumph.

We need a Mother and a Mother's Heart. Be for us the luminous dawn which dissipates our darkness and points out the way to life. Be thou the ever flowing source from which we draw courage, confidence and love – the bond uniting all men and the sign of peace. Amen.

Next Sunday, May 24th, Holy Family Church celebrates its 45th Anniversary!
We thank God in all our remembrance of you because of your faithful support.

The first quarter of this year was filled with moments of grace. Because of your generosity, the necessary housing for our teaching sisters is being achieved. That said to date we have raised $81,951.00 of our $325,000.00 goal toward the purchase of the Stella Maris Convent!

As a second quarterly appeal, we want to continue working toward this goal. We invite you to prayerfully consider how you have been blessed by God and how God, in turn, is leading you to generously share these blessings with God's church.

As you consider your participation in the campaign, remember that our communal desire as a church should be to continually grow in our efforts and ability to be inviting, compassionate, and generous to our internal needs as well as those of our neighbors.

Would you earnestly consider a gift to help us continue this vital work?
Please join in prayer for our church that God will lead us to a generous response.

END OF THE SCHOOL YEAR

All are invited to attend Holy Family School's end of the year program!

WHEN: Wednesday, May 20th

TIME: 7:00 PM

Saint Gregory VII, Pope, Confessor (1015 – 25 May 1085)

Hildebrand of Sovana, born probably in southern Tuscany, to an upper-middle-class family with possible connections to Rome. In one of the few personal recollections in his papal letters—preserved in the original register in the Archivio Segreto (“Secret Archives”) of the Vatican—he recalled growing up in the Roman church under the special protection of St. Peter, “Prince of the Apostles.” He attended the palace school at the Lateran with Roman nobles before continuing his education among the canons of San Giovanni a Porta Latina, a collegiate church next to the Lateran Basilica and palace. One of his teachers there was Archbishop Lawrence of Amalfi, who was famed for his knowledge of both Greek and Latin, and the head of the community was the archpriest John Gratian, the future Pope Gregory VI (1045–46).

The 10th century and the first half of the 11th were dark days for the Church, partly because the papacy was the pawn of various Roman families. In 1049, things began to change when Pope Leo IX, a reformer, was elected. He brought a young monk named Hildebrand to Rome as his counselor and special representative on important missions. Hildebrand was to become Gregory VII, Pope from 22 April 1073 to his death in 1085.

Three evils plagued the Church then: simony—the buying and selling of sacred offices and things; the unlawful marriage of the clergy; and lay investiture—kings and nobles controlling the appointment of Church officials. To all of these Hildebrand directed his reformer’s attention, first as counselor to the popes and later as pope himself.

Gregory’s papal letters stress the role of the bishop of Rome as the vicar of Christ and the visible center of unity in the Church. He is well known for his long dispute with Holy Roman Emperor Henry IV over who should control the selection of bishops and abbots.

Gregory VII excommunicated Henry IV three times. Consequently, Henry IV would appoint Antipope Clement III to oppose him in the political power struggles between the Catholic Church and his empire. Hailed as one of the greatest of the Roman pontiffs after his reforms proved successful, Gregory VII was, during his own reign, despised by some for his expansive use of papal powers.

Gregory fiercely resisted any attack on the liberty of the Church. For this he suffered and finally died in exile. He said, “I have loved justice and hated iniquity; therefore, I die in exile.” Thirty years later the Church finally won its struggle against lay investiture.

The Liturgical Feast of Saint Gregory VII is May 25th.

We gladly welcome visitors and newcomers. At the same time, we respectfully remind you that to receive Our Lord in Holy Communion, one must be:
A baptized Catholic free from any mortal sin committed since one’s last Confession. Fasting for three hours from any food and/or alcoholic beverage.
One hour from any other beverage except water.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of respect for the True Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and for the edification of our neighbor, we kindly request that all who come to our parish observe the basic traditional Catholic standards of dress for church attendance and to receive communion at the communion rail:

Women and girls must cover their heads. (Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan or purchase in the vestibule.)

Women and girls must wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting. Slacks, jeans, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing, and dresses or skirts with long slits above the knees are not permitted.

It is recommended for men and boys to wear suit coats and ties for Sunday Mass.

Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at church.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
