GOSPEL Luke 10:1-9 At that time, the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them forth two and two before Him into every town and place where He Himself was to come. And He said to them: "The harvest indeed is great, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into His harvest. Go: Behold I send you as lambs among wolves. Carry neither purse, nor wallet, nor sandals, and greet no one on the way. Into whatever house you enter, first say: 'Peace be to this house.' And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon him: but if not, it shall return to you. And in the same house, remain, eating and drinking such things as they have: for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Do not go from house to house. And whatever town you enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you. And heal the sick that are therein and say to them: 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.' "

Saint Luke was born a Greek and a Gentile in Antioch, Syria. He was a physician and it is believed that he may have also been a slave, as it was not uncommon in his day for slaves to be educated in medicine so the family would have a resident physician. Luke became a close companion of Paul of Tarsus and accompanied him on his missionary journeys. It is very possible that Luke provided medical assistance to Paul when he had been beaten, stoned or nearly drowned while evangelizing the Western Roman Empire. Luke is the only Gentile to have written books in the Bible. He is the writer of the third Gospel and the Acts of the Apostles and his writings have been proven to be historically accurate. In the third Gospel, Luke emphasizes Christ's compassion for sinners and for those who suffer.

One will also find in Luke's account of the gospel, a strong emphasis on the role women played in Christ's ministry. Luke's Christian ministry can be followed in the book of Acts. Up until the sixteenth chapter the story of Acts is written in the third person, much like an historian recording facts. The voice of the narrator then changes to first person and scholars believe this is done at the time Luke first joined Paul at Troas in the year 51. The book of Acts switches back to third person and scholars believe that this reflects a period in time when Luke was not present during the events that are recorded. It is believed that Luke lived a long life and died AD 74 in Greece. He was the first Christian physician and was venerated by the Catholic Church as the patron saint of physicians and surgeons. Saint Luke is also considered the patron saint of painters because according to tradition, he had painted images of Mary and of Jesus. This was later proven to be incorrect. Saint Luke's feast day is celebrated on October 18th.

Saint Raphael the Archangel ~ The name of the angel, Raphael, "God Heals" appears only in the Biblical Book of Tobit. The Book of Tobit is considered deuterocanonical by Catholics, Orthodox, and some Anglicans. Raphael first appears disguised in human form as the travelling companion of Tobit's son, Tobiah, calling himself "Azarias the son of the great Ananias". During the course of the journey the archangel's protective influence is shown in many ways including the binding of a demon in the desert of upper Egypt. After returning and healing the blind Tobit, Azarias makes himself known as "the angel Raphael, one of the seven, who stand before the Lord" Tobit 12:15. He is venerated as Saint Raphael the Archangel.

Regarding the healing powers attributed to Raphael, there is his declaration to Tobit (Tobit, 12) that he was sent by the Lord to heal him of his blindness and to deliver Sarah, his future daughter-in-law, from the demon Asmodeus, who kills every man she marries on their wedding night before the marriage can be consummated.

Weekly Catechism taken from Baltimore Catechism III, by Rev. Francis J. Connell

What is the Sacrament of Holy Orders?

It is the sacrament through which men receive the power and grace to perform the sacred duties of bishops, priests and other ministries of the church.

- a) A bishop is a priest who has the power of administering both the sacrament of Holy Orders and Confirmation.
- b) The other orders of ministers of the Church below those of priest are the major orders of deacon, subdeacon, and the four minor orders of acolyte, exorcist, lector and porter.

Who is the minister of the sacrament of Holy Orders?

The bishop is the minister of the sacrament of Holy Orders.

What are some of the requirements that a man may receive Holy Orders worthily?

To receive Holy Orders worthily it is necessary: first, that the man be in a state of grace and be of excellent character; second, that he have the prescribed age and learning; third, that he has the intention of devoting his life to the sacred ministry; fourth, that he be called to Holy Orders by his bishop.

Some of the preliminary signs of a vocation in the priesthood are: first, the boy or young man is capable of living habitually in the state of grace; second, there is an attraction to the priesthood manifested in frequent confessions and Communion, a virtuous life and by a love of serving Mass.

Without a special dispensation, no one may be ordained a priest until he is 24 years of age. Ordinarily the prescribed learning consists of 4 years of high school, 4 years of college, and 4 years of theology completed in a seminary.

What are the effects of ordination to the priesthood?

The effects of ordination are: first, an increase in sanctifying grace; second, sacramental grace, through which the priest has God's constant help in his sacred ministry; third, a character, lasting forever, which is a special sharing in the priesthood of Christ, and which gives the priest supernatural powers.

What are the chief supernatural powers of the priest?

The chief supernatural powers are, to change bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and to forgive sins in the sacrament of Penance.

Why should Catholics show reverence and honor to the priest?

Because he is the representative of Christ Himself and the dispenser of His mysteries.

We gladly welcome visitors and newcomers. At the same time, we respectfully remind you that to receive Our Lord in Holy Communion, one must be:

A baptized Catholic free from any mortal sin committed since one's last Confession. Fasting for three hours from any food and/or alcoholic beverage.

One hour from any other beverage except water.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of respect for the True Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and for the edification of our neighbor, we kindly request that all who come to our parish observe the basic traditional Catholic standards of dress for church attendance and to receive communion at the communion rail:

Women and girls must cover their heads. (Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan or purchase in the vestibule.)

Women and girls must wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting. Slacks, jeans, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing, and dresses or skirts with long slits above the knees are not permitted.

It is recommended for men and boys to wear suit coats and ties for Sunday Mass.

Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at church.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
