Trinity Sunday

GOSPEL Matt. 28:18-20 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "All in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. Go, therefore, and make disciples all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you. And behold I am with you all days, even to the consummation of the world."

TRINITY SUNDAY: The fundamental dogma, on which everything in Christianity is based, is that of the Blessed Trinity in whose name all Christians are baptized.

The feast of the Blessed Trinity needs to be understood and celebrated as a prolongation of the mysteries of Christ and as the solemn expression of our faith in this triune life of the Divine Persons, to which we have been given access by Baptism and by the Redemption won for us by Christ.

Only in heaven shall we properly understand what it means, in union with Christ, to share as sons in the very life of God.

The feast of the Blessed Trinity was introduced in the ninth century and was only inserted in the general calendar of the Church in the fourteenth century by Pope John XXII. But the veneration of the Trinity is to be found throughout the liturgy. Often the Church causes us to praise and adore the thrice-holy God who has so shown His mercy towards us and has given us to share in His life.

The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast is this: There is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Ghost is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Ghost. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Ghost is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth.

Why is this feast celebrated at this particular time? All three Persons contributed to and shared in the work of redemption. The Father sent His Son to earth, for "God so loved the world as to give His only-begotten Son." The Father called us to the faith. The Son, our Savior Jesus Christ, became man and died for us. He redeemed us and made us children of God. He remains the liturgist par excellence to whom we are united in all-sacred functions. After Christ's ascension the Holy Ghost, however, became our Teacher, our Leader, our Guide, and our Consoler. On solemn occasions a thanksgiving Te Deum rises spontaneously from Christian hearts.

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity may well be regarded as the Church's Te Deum of gratitude over all the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons; for this mystery is a synthesis of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost.

This feast, which falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, should make us mindful that every Sunday is devoted to the honor of the Most Holy Trinity, that every Sunday is sanctified and consecrated to the triune God. Sunday after Sunday we should recall in a spirit of gratitude the gifts which the Blessed Trinity is bestowing upon us. The Father created and predestined us; on the first day of the week He began the work of creation. The Son redeemed us; Sunday is the "Day of the Lord," the day of His resurrection. The Holy Ghost sanctified us, made us His temple; on Sunday the Holy Ghost descended upon the infant Church. Sunday, therefore, is the day of the Most Holy Trinity.

O SANCTISSIMA, a prayer to the Holy Trinity

*O most Holy Trinity,
I adore you who dwell by your grace in my soul.
Sanctify me more and more,
make me love you more and more,
abide with me evermore and be my true joy. Amen.*

Enrollment is open at Holy Family School for the 2025/26 school year ~

The school is teaching grades K through 7th. If you have children or grandchildren aged 5 - 12, strongly consider enrolling them at Holy Family School which teaches a traditional Catholic curriculum with tried and true academic programs such as Mother Seton and Our Lady of Victory. It is the responsibility of all parents to provide a Catholic education for their children. Tuition is affordable and Step-Up Scholarships are available.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of respect for the True Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and for the edification of our neighbor, we kindly request that all who come to our parish observe the basic traditional Catholic standards of dress for church attendance and to receive communion at the communion rail:

Women and girls must cover their heads. (Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan or purchase in the vestibule.)

Women and girls must wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting. Slacks, jeans, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing, and dresses or skirts with long slits above the knees are not permitted.

It is recommended for men and boys to wear suit coats and ties for Sunday Mass.

Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at church.

CorpusChristi: In 1246 AD Jacob Pantaleon, Archdeacon of Liege, made arrangements to introduce the festival of Corpus Christi in his diocese at the urgent request of St. Juliana prioress of a convent on Mount Cornillon. His death initially prevented his intention from being put into effect. However, Cardinal Legate Hugh undertook to carry out his directions, and celebrated the festival for the first time in the year 1247, in the Church of St. Martin at Liege. Several bishops followed this example, and the festival was observed in many dioceses, before Pope Urban IV, in the year 1264, ordered its celebration by the whole Church. This order was confirmed by Clement V, at the Council of Vienna in 1311, and the Thursday after the octave of Pentecost appointed for its celebration. In 1317 Pope John XXII instituted the solemn procession. This feast by reason of the procession became very popular with the faithful who were thereby enabled to proclaim not only their faith in the Real Presence but also their gratitude to God for all the benefits they derive from this great Sacrament. St. Thomas Aquinas composed both Office and Mass for this feast.

INTERESTING FACT: In August 1264, Pope Urban IV issued the Bull Transiturus, ordering Corpus Christi to be celebrated annually on the Thursday after Trinity Sunday throughout the Latin Church. The papal bull begins with the words: Transiturus de hoc mundo ad patrem salvator dominus noster Iesus Christus, i.e. "As he was about to pass from this world to the Father, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ," referring to the Last Supper (cf. John 13:1). It was the very first papally sanctioned universal feast in the history of the Latin Rite. St. Thomas Aquinas contributed substantially to the bull, particularly in parts concerned with the liturgical text of the new feast. Aquinas composed the sequence Tantum ego sacramentum for this purpose. Pope Urban IV died on October 2, 1264.
