Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

GOSPEL Matt. 5:20-24 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "Unless your justice abounds more than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to them of old: 'Thou shalt not kill.' And whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgment. But I say to you, that whosoever is angry with his brother, shall be in danger of the judgment. And whosoever shall say to his brother, 'Raca,' shall be in danger of the council. And whosoever shall say, 'Thou fool', shall be in danger of hell fire.

If therefore thou offer thy gift at the altar, and there thou remember that thy brother hath anything against thee; Leave there thy offering before the altar, and go first to be reconciled to thy brother, and then coming thou shalt offer thy gift."

Saint Jerome Emiliani's Story ~ Born 1481 at Venice, Italy to a wealthy family. Jerome's father died when he was a teenager, and he ran away from home at age 15. After a dissolute youth, he became a soldier in 1506.

A careless and irreligious soldier for the city-state of Venice, Jerome was captured in a military campaign at an outpost town and chained in a dungeon. In prison Jerome had a lot of time to think, and he gradually learned how to pray. When he escaped, he hung his metal chains in the nearby church -- in gratitude not only for being freed from physical prison but from his spiritual dungeon as well. Jerome returned to Venice where he took charge of the education of his nephews—and began his own studies for the priesthood. He is believed to have developed the question-and-answer catechism technique for teaching children religion.

In the years after his ordination, events again called St. Jerome to a decision and a new lifestyle. Plague and famine swept northern Italy. St. Jerome began caring for the sick and feeding the hungry at his own expense. While serving the sick and the poor, he soon resolved to devote himself and his property solely to others, particularly to abandoned children. He founded three orphanages, a shelter for penitent prostitutes and a hospital. Around 1532, St. Jerome and two other priests established a congregation, the Clerks Regular of Somasca, dedicated to the care of orphans and the education of youth.

St. Jerome died in 1537, at the age of 56, from the disease he contracted while tending the sick.

St. Jerome was beatified September 29, 1747 by Pope Benedict XIV, and canonized July 16, 1767 by Pope Clement XIII. In 1928, Pius XI named him the patron of orphans and abandoned children. His Liturgical Feast Day is July 20th.

Reflection:

Very often in our lives it seems to take some kind of "imprisonment" to free us from the shackles of our self-centeredness. When we're "caught" in some situation we don't want to be in, we finally come to know the power of prayer. Only then can we become available to "the imprisoned" and "the orphaned" all around us.

Prayer:

Saint Jerome Emiliani, watch over all children who are abandoned or unloved. Give us the courage to show them God's love through our care. Help us to lose the chains that keep us from living the life God intended for us. Amen

Enrollment is open at Holy Family School for the 2025/26 school year

Open House, Sunday, July 20th from 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM.

The school is teaching grades K through 7th. If you have children or grandchildren aged 5 - 12, strongly consider enrolling them at Holy Family School which teaches a traditional Catholic curriculum with tried and true academic programs such as Mother Seton and Our Lady of Victory. It is the responsibility of all parents to provide a Catholic education for their children. Tuition is affordable and Step-Up Scholarships are available.

Holy Family School Board members: James DeFillips and Ken Peldunas. Contact Number : (844) 435-3858

We gladly welcome visitors and newcomers.

At the same time, we respectfully remind you that to receive Our Lord in Holy Communion, one must be:

A baptized Catholic free from any mortal sin committed since one's last Confession.

Fasting for three hours from any food and/or alcoholic beverage.

One hour from any other beverage except water.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of respect for the True Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and for the edification of our neighbor, we kindly request that all who come to our parish observe the basic traditional Catholic standards of dress for church attendance and to receive communion at the communion rail:

Women and girls must cover their heads. (Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan or purchase in the vestibule.)

Women and girls must wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting. Slacks, jeans, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing, and dresses or skirts with long slits above the knees are not permitted.

It is recommended for men and boys to wear suit coats and ties for Sunday Mass.

Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at church.

The feast day of Our Lady of Mt Carmel is July 16th ~ In the year 1251, in the town of Aylesford, England, Our Lady appeared to St. Simon Stock, a Carmelite. She handed him a brown woolen scapular and said, “This shall be a privilege for you and all Carmelites, that anyone dying in this habit shall not suffer eternal fire.” In time, the Church extended this magnificent privilege to all the laity who are willing to be invested in the Brown Scapular of the Carmelites and who perpetually wear it.

True devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary consists in three things: VENERATION, CONFIDENCE AND LOVE. By simply wearing the Scapular, we can tell her every moment of the day that we venerate her, love her and trust in her protection.

The Scapular Is a Silent Prayer.

When we use it as a prayer, Our Lady draws us to the Sacred Heart of Her Divine Son. It is especially in time of temptation that we need the powerful intercession of God’s Mother. The evil spirit is utterly powerless when the wearer of a scapular faces temptation, calling upon the Holy Virgin in this silent devotion. “If you had recommended yourself to me, you would not have run into such danger,” was Our Lady’s gentle reproach to Blessed Alan de la Roche, one of her devoted servants.

Enrollment in the Confraternity

To be eligible for the scapular promise, one must be enrolled in the Brown Scapular Confraternity. This is a simple ceremony which is performed by a priest. The members of the Confraternity have the added benefit of sharing in all the spiritual benefits of the Carmelite Order.

The Brown Scapular

The scapular must be 100% wool without a plastic casing and should not be pinned or affixed to clothing. It is worn over the head, under one’s clothes, with one square of wool hanging on the chest and the other on the back.

The Blessed Virgin of Mount Carmel has promised to save those who wear the scapular from the fires of hell; She will also shorten their stay in purgatory if they should pass from this world still owing some debt of punishment.
