Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

GOSPEL Mark 8:1-9 In those days, when there was a great multitude and they had nothing to eat; calling His disciples together, He said to them: "I have compassion on the multitude, for behold they have now been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. And if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them came from afar off." And His disciples answered Him: "From whence can anyone fill them here with bread in the desert?" And He asked them: "How many loaves have you?" And they said: "Seven." And He commanded the people to sit down on the ground. And taking the seven loaves, giving thanks, He broke and gave them to His disciples and they set them before the crowd. And they had a few little fishes; and He blessed them and commanded them to be set before them. And they ate and were filled; and they took up that which was left of the fragments, seven baskets. And they that had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away.

St. James, also called James, son of Zebedee, or James the Greater, (born, Galilee, Palestine—died 44 AD, Jerusalem; feast day July 25), one of the Twelve Apostles, distinguished as being in Jesus' innermost circle and the only apostle whose martyrdom is recorded in the New Testament (Acts 12:2).

James is styled "the Greater" to distinguish him from the Apostle James "the Less", with greater meaning older or taller, rather than more important. James the Greater was the brother of John the Apostle.

James is described as one of the first disciples to join Jesus. The Synoptic Gospels state that James and John were with their father by the seashore when Jesus called them to follow him. [Matt. 4:21–22] [Mk. 1:19–20]

James was one of only three apostles whom Jesus selected to bear witness to his Transfiguration.

Salome, the mother of James and John asked Jesus to grant them seats on His right and left in His glory. Jesus asked if they were ready to drink from the cup He was going to drink from and said the honor was not even for Him to grant.

James and his younger brother, St. John the Apostle, are designated Boanerges (from the Greek boanerges), or "Sons of Thunder" (Mark 3:17), perhaps because of their characteristic fiery zeal (Mark 9:38 and Luke 9:54). James and his brother wanted to call down fire on a Samaritan town but were rebuked by Jesus.

Following Christ's Ascension, James spread the Gospel across Israel and the Roman kingdom as well. He traveled and spread the Word for many years in Spain.

Later, James returned to Jerusalem but was martyred for his faith, beheaded by order of King Herod Agrippa I of Judaea. According to Spanish tradition, his body was taken to Santiago de Compostela.

Saint James is the patron saint of Spain. The traditional pilgrimage to the grave of the saint, known as the "Way of St. James", has been the most popular pilgrimage for Western European Catholics from the Early Middle Ages onwards.

When July 25th falls on a Sunday, it is a "Holy Year" and a special east door is opened for entrance into Santiago Cathedral. In the 2004 Holy Year, 179,944 pilgrims were received at Compostela. In the 2010 Holy Year the number was 272,412 and in 2021 it was 178,912. The next Holy Year is 2027.

Enrollment is open at Holy Family School for the 2025/26 school year Open House, Sunday, July 20th from 12:00 PM to 2:00 PM.

The school is teaching grades K through 7th. If you have children or grandchildren aged 5 - 12, strongly consider enrolling them at Holy Family School which teaches a traditional Catholic curriculum with tried and true academic programs such as Mother Seton and Our Lady of Victory. It is the responsibility of all parents to provide a Catholic education for their children. Tuition is affordable and Step-Up Scholarships are available.

Holy Family School Board members: James DeFillips and Ken Peldunas. Contact Number : (844) 435-3858

We gladly welcome visitors and newcomers.

At the same time, we respectfully remind you that to receive Our Lord in Holy Communion, one must be:

A baptized Catholic free from any mortal sin committed since one's last Confession.

Fasting for three hours from any food and/or alcoholic beverage.

One hour from any other beverage except water.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of respect for the True Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and for the edification of our neighbor, we kindly request that all who come to our parish observe the basic traditional Catholic standards of dress for church attendance and to receive communion at the communion rail:

Women and girls must cover their heads. (Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan or purchase in the vestibule.)

Women and girls must wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting. Slacks, jeans, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing, and dresses or skirts with long slits above the knees are not permitted.

It is recommended for men and boys to wear suit coats and ties for Sunday Mass.

Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at church.

Gospel Commentary: Saint Ambrose, who compares the miraculous repast mentioned in today's Gospel with the other multiplication of loaves brought before us on the fourth Sunday of Lent, remarks how, both in spiritual nourishment and in that which refreshes the body, there are various degrees of excellence.

The Bridegroom does not ordinarily serve up the choicest wine, He does not produce the daintiest dishes, at the beginning of the banquet He has prepared for His dear ones.

Besides, there are many souls here below who are not capable of rising, beyond a certain limit, towards the divine and substantial light, which is the nourishment of the spirit. To these, therefore— and they are the majority and are representative of the five thousand men who were present at the first miraculous multiplication—the five loaves of inferior quality are an appropriate food, and one that, by its very number, is in keeping with the five senses, which, more or less, have dominion over the multitude.

But, as for the privileged favorites of grace; as for those men who are not distracted by the cares of this present life, who scorn to use its permitted pleasures, and who, even while in the flesh, make God the only king of their soul; for these, and for these only, the Bridegroom reserves the pure wheat of the seven loaves, which, by their number, express the plenitude of the Holy Spirit, and mysteries in abundance. Dom Prosper Gueranger
