Seventh Sunday after Pentecost

GOSPEL Matt. 7:15-21 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, shall be cut down, and shall be cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them. Not everyone that saith to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doth the will of My Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven."

Saint Ignatius of Loyola (23 October 1491 – 31 July 1556) was the youngest of 13 children from a family of minor nobility in northern Spain. As a young man Ignatius was inflamed by the ideals of courtly love and knighthood and dreamed of doing great things.

In 1521 Ignatius was seriously wounded in a battle with the French. While recuperating, he experienced a conversion. Reading the lives of Jesus and the saints made Ignatius happy. St. Ignatius had always dreamed of imitating heroic deeds, but now, the heroes had names like Francis of Assisi and Catherine of Siena. St. Ignatius also noticed something strange happening to him, God, he realized, was working within him. St. Ignatius realized that these feelings were clues to God's direction for him. As he traveled far and wide these experiences would prove to be the beginnings of Ignatian spirituality — and Jesuit ministry.

He became a Spanish Basque Catholic priest and theologian, who co-founded the religious order called the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) and became its first Superior General at Paris in 1541. The Jesuit order served the Pope as missionaries, and they were bound by a vow of special obedience to the sovereign pontiff in regard to the missions. They therefore emerged as an important force during the time of the Counter-Reformation.

St. Ignatius is remembered as a talented spiritual director. He recorded his method in a celebrated treatise called the Spiritual Exercises, a simple set of meditations, prayers, and other mental exercises, first published in 1548.

St. Ignatius died in Rome on 31 July 1556, as a result of the Roman Fever, a severe case of malaria that recurred in Rome, Italy, at different points in history. An autopsy revealed that he also had several kidney and bladder stones, a probable cause of the abdominal pains he suffered from later in life. He was placed in a wooden shrine and his body was then covered with his priestly garments.

On 1 August the shrine was then buried in the small Maria della Strada Church. In 1568 that church was pulled down and replaced with the Church of the Gesù. Saint Ignatius was put into a new coffin and reinterred in the new church.

St. Ignatius was beatified in 1609, and then canonized, receiving the title of Saint on 12 March 1622. His feast day is celebrated on 31 July.

He is the patron saint of the Basque provinces of Gipuzkoa and Biscay as well as the Society of Jesus and was declared patron saint of all spiritual retreats by Pope Pius XI in 1922. St. Ignatius is also a foremost patron saint of soldiers.

Prayer of St. Ignatius ~ "Take, Lord, receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, my whole will, all that I have and all that I possess. You gave it all to me, Lord; I give it all back to You. Do with it as You will, according to Your good pleasure. Give me Your love and Your grace; for with this I have all that I need."

Prayer to Know God's Will ~ "May it please the supreme and divine Goodness to give us all abundant grace, ever to know His most holy will and perfectly to fulfill it." —St. Ignatius of Loyola
(This prayer was added to the end of many letters St. Ignatius wrote.)

Enrollment is open at Holy Family School for the 2025/26 school year

The school is teaching grades K through 7th. If you have children or grandchildren aged 5 - 12, strongly consider enrolling them at Holy Family School which teaches a traditional Catholic curriculum with tried and true academic programs such as Mother Seton and Our Lady of Victory. It is the responsibility of all parents to provide a Catholic education for their children. Tuition is affordable and Step-Up Scholarships are available.

Holy Family School Board members: James DeFillips and Ken Peldunas. Contact Number : (844) 435-3858

We gladly welcome visitors and newcomers.

At the same time, we respectfully remind you that to receive Our Lord in Holy Communion, one must be:

A baptized Catholic free from any mortal sin committed since one's last Confession.

Fasting for three hours from any food and/or alcoholic beverage.

One hour from any other beverage except water.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of respect for the True Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and for the edification of our neighbor, we kindly request that all who come to our parish observe the basic traditional Catholic standards of dress for church attendance and to receive communion at the communion rail:

Women and girls must cover their heads. (Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan or purchase in the vestibule.)

Women and girls must wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting. Slacks, jeans, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing, and dresses or skirts with long slits above the knees are not permitted.

It is recommended for men and boys to wear suit coats and ties for Sunday Mass.

Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at church.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- We would like to extend a Warm Welcome to Sisters Johanna, Josephine and Margaret Mary who are here for the week teaching catechism, archery and more to the children at St. Philomena Summer Camp.
- August 1st is the First Friday of the month, Mass is at 9:00am, followed by Benediction.
- Catechism Classes begin after Mass every Sunday starting on August 10th.
- Following Mass, visit with your fellow Catholics in the church hall where light refreshments are available.
- Join parishioners every Tuesday at 3:00 PM in the church to recite fifteen decades of the rosary. Our intentions are to ask God and his Blessed Mother for their protection of our country and our church against the force which is trying to destroy us.
- In your kindness, remember to pray for those listed on the Memorial Page, and all deceased members of the chapel. Remember also those in the parish who are ill, troubled or suffer silently in pain.
- New to the Tridentine Mass, you may find the grey or green paperback missals found in the pews helpful in following the Mass.
- Please consider including The Chapel of the Holy Family in your estate plans. The Chapel is grateful for your continuing support, which helps to preserve and sustain the Pre-Vatican II traditional liturgy & faith of the Roman Catholic Church in the Melbourne area.
- The church website is updated frequently and reflects all upcoming events and Mass times.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE

As of September 1, 2025 Holy Family will no longer maintain the current church directory.

You are strongly encouraged to visit the website at <https://holyfamilytcc.org> and REGISTER as a MEMBER in the NEW DATABASE as this will be the only way to receive emails regarding important church events, etc.

You can sign up on a computer or a mobile device and COMPLETE the PROFILE including your address and phone contact, so should the priests need to visit you they have this information readily available.

Should you require assistance in registering please contact the webmaster, Cris at <https://holyfamilytcc.org/contact>.

INSTRUCTION ON GOOD WORKS

- What are good works? All actions of men, which are done according to the will of God, from, love of Him, and by the help of grace.
- Which are the principal good works? Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Prayer including all acts belonging to the service of God; fasting, all mortifications of the body; almsgiving, all works of mercy.
- How many are the works of mercy? Two: corporal and spiritual.
- Which are the spiritual works of mercy? Those which have for their object the salvation of our neighbor; as, 1, to admonish the sinner; 2, to instruct the ignorant; 3, to counsel the doubtful; 4, to comfort the afflicted; 5, to bear wrongs patiently; 6, to forgive injuries and offences; 7, to pray for the living and the dead.
- Which are the corporal works of mercy? 1. To feed the hungry; 2, to give drink to the thirsty; 3, to clothe the naked; 4, to visit the prisoners; 5, to shelter the houseless; 6, to visit the sick; 7, to bury the dead (Matt. xxv. 42, 43).
- What is necessary to render works meritorious? 1. They must be good in themselves; 2, they must be done by the grace of God; 3, in the state of grace; 4, by free will; 5, with the good intention of pleasing God.
- Can we be saved without good works? No, for Christ says expressly, "Every tree that bringeth not good fruit shall be cut down and shall be cast into the fire."
And that servant in the Gospel (Matt. xxv. 25) who neither wasted his talent nor yet traded with it, but dug it into the earth and hid his lord's money was thus cast into the outer darkness. Goffine.

Weekly Catechism

In this first lesson, we study the most important questions in this life: Where did we come from? What are we supposed to do here? What happens after this life? We study the "end" or purpose of man.

Q. Who made the world? A. God made the world.

Q. Who is God? A. God is the Creator of heaven and earth, and of all things.

Q. What is man? A. Man is a creature composed of body and soul and made to the image and likeness of God.

Q. Why did God make you? A. God made me to know Him, to love Him, and to serve Him in this world, and to be happy with Him forever in the next.

Q. What must we do to save our souls? A. To save our souls, we must worship God by faith, hope, and charity; that is, we must believe in Him, hope in Him, and love Him with all our heart.

Q. How shall we know the things which we are to believe? A. We shall know the things which we are to believe from the Catholic Church, through which God speaks to us.

Q. Where shall we find the chief truths which the Church teaches? A. We shall find the chief truths which the Church teaches in the Apostles' Creed.
