Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

GOSPEL Luke 18:9-14 At that time, Jesus spoke this parable also to some who trusted in themselves as just and despised others. "Two men went up into the temple to pray: the one a Pharisee and the other a publican. The Pharisee standing, prayed thus with himself: 'O God, I give thee thanks that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, as also is this publican. I fast twice in a week: I give tithes of all that I possess.' And the publican, standing afar off, would not so much as lift up his eyes towards heaven; but struck his breast, saying: 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I say to you, this man went down into his house justified rather than the other: because everyone that exalts himself shall be humbled: and he that humbles himself shall be exalted."

St. Augustine, Bishop and Confessor, Doctor of the Church

St. Augustine was born in 354 to a pagan father and a Christian mother, St. Monica. His early education was that of a young pagan gentleman, but he went on to become one of the most influential and genius Doctors of the Catholic Church.

St. Augustine's infamous life of impurity and practice of the heretical Manichaeism reveal the magnitude of his conversion to Christianity, mainly through the intercession of his mother, St. Monica.

He finally began to pull away from his pagan ways and was eventually baptized in 387 by St. Ambrose, Bishop of Milan, who became a great counselor and friend to his mother as she prayed for her son.

Saint Augustine went on to become the Bishop of Hippo (in modern day Algeria) and one of the greatest Catholic Christian writers and thinkers in the history of the Church.

For thirty-five years he was the center of ecclesiastical life in Africa, and the Church's strongest champion against heresy. His writings, which compose many volumes, have been accepted everywhere as a major source of both Christian spirituality and theological speculation. His most well-known works are his "Confessions" and "The City of God".

The great Doctor died, deeply regretted by the entire Christian world, in 430. His feast is celebrated in the Church on August 28th, the day after that of his holy mother, St. Monica. It is entirely fitting that their feasts are side-by-side on the liturgical calendar, given that Monica won her son's deep conversion to Christ through her many years of patient and persistent prayer.

St. Augustine is a perfect example of how God works miracles in our lives, often through the intercession of other people. Once St. Augustine cried out to God, "Too late have I loved you!" in sorrow over the many years he lived a dissolute life while putting off the call of God.

It is never too late to commit ourselves to conversion and service to our Lord! St. Augustine, pray for us.

We gladly welcome visitors and newcomers.

At the same time, we respectfully remind you that to receive Our Lord in Holy Communion, one must be:

A baptized Catholic free from any mortal sin committed since one's last Confession.

Fasting for three hours from any food and/or alcoholic beverage.

One hour from any other beverage except water.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of respect for the True Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and for the edification of our neighbor, we kindly request that all who come to our parish observe the basic traditional Catholic standards of dress for church attendance and to receive communion at the communion rail:

Women and girls must cover their heads. (Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan or purchase in the vestibule.)

Women and girls must wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting. Slacks, jeans, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing, and dresses or skirts with long slits above the knees are not permitted.

It is recommended for men and boys to wear suit coats and ties for Sunday Mass.

Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at church.

Weekly Catechism taken from Baltimore Catechism III, by Rev. Francis J. Connell

Before He ascended into heaven Our Blessed Lord decided to establish means of communicating to the souls of men the graces He had merited by His life and death. Our Savior willed to use external ceremonies, signs which could be perceived by men through the bodily senses. As what appeals to their senses makes a greater impression than something that is perceived by intellect alone; hence, Our Lord decided to suit His means of grace to man's nature. He adapted the sacraments to a plan of the spiritual life very similar to the course of man's natural life from the cradle to the grave.

What is a sacrament?

A sacrament is an outward sign instituted by Christ to give grace.

How many sacraments are there?

There are seven sacraments. Baptism, Penance, Holy Eucharist, Confirmation, Matrimony, Holy Orders and Extreme Unction.

From whom do the sacraments receive their power to give grace?

From God, through the merits of Jesus Christ.

Do the sacraments give sanctifying grace?

Yes, the sacraments give sanctifying grace. Each of them gives a special grace, called sacramental grace, which helps one to carry out the particular purpose of that sacrament.

Why are Baptism and Penance called sacraments of the dead?

Because their chief purpose is to give the supernatural life of sanctifying grace to souls spiritually dead from sin.

Why are Holy Eucharist, Confirmation, Matrimony, Holy Orders and Extreme Unction called sacraments of the living?

Because their chief purpose is to give more grace to souls already spiritually alive through sanctifying grace.

What sin does one commit who knowingly receives a sacrament of the living in mortal sin?

He who knowingly receives a sacrament of the living in mortal sin commits a mortal sin of sacrilege, because he treats a sacred thing with grave irreverence.

Which are the sacraments that can be received only once?

Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Orders can only be received once.

Why can Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Orders be received only once?

Because they imprint on the soul a spiritual mark, called a character, which lasts forever.

a) The indelible character received in Baptism enables one to receive the other sacraments; in Confirmation, the character enables one to profess the Christian faith before its enemies; in Holy Orders, the character enables one to consecrate oneself to the work of administering the sacraments to other persons.

b) The character imprinted on the soul by Baptism and Confirmation imposes the obligation of being a lay apostle, that is, of bringing the faith and the grace of Christ to others under the guidance of the clergy.

c) Persons who received a sacramental character are forever distinguished from those who have not. Thus, it will always be a mark of glory for those who are saved, but a mark of shame for those who are lost.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
