Twelfth Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Luke 10:23-37 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "Blessed are the eyes that see the things which you see. For I say to you that many prophets and kings have desired to see the things that you see and have not seen them; and to hear the things that you hear and have not heard them." And behold a certain lawyer stood up, tempting Him and saying, "Master, what must I do to possess eternal life?" But He said to him: "What is written in the law? How do you read?" He answered and said, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart and with thy whole soul and with all thy strength and with all thy mind: and thy neighbor as thyself." And He said to him, "You have answered rightly. Do this and you shall live." But he wishing to justify himself, said to Jesus: "And who is my neighbor?"

Jesus answered and said: "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell among robbers, who also stripped him and having wounded him went away, leaving him half dead. And it chanced, that a certain priest went down the same way: and seeing him, passed by. In like manner also a Levite, when he was near the place and saw him, passed by. But a certain Samaritan, being on his journey, came near him: and seeing him, was moved with compassion: And going up to him, bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine: and setting him upon his own beast, brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper and said: 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I, on my way back, will repay you.' "Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to him that fell among the robbers?" And he said: "He who took pity on him." And Jesus said to him: "Go and do also in like manner."

September ~ Month of the Holy Cross

Thanks be to God that His wisdom often turns human plans upside down and inside out. We see this in the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. The instrument of torture becomes the throne of glory.

He Who was nailed to the Cross like a criminal is in fact the King of kings before Whom one day every knee shall bow.

The splendor of the Holy Cross guarantees that in our war against the forces of darkness we are already well and truly on the winning side. The principal and decisive battle has already been fought and won by the Son of God. What now remains are the continuing skirmishes by which the Enemy tries to undermine our confidence in Christ's victory.

How do we exalt the Holy Cross? By showing forth in our daily lives the Gospel truth that suffering can be salvific. We also exalt Christ the Lord by reaching out in charity to our neighbors, especially to those who do not yet share our faith.

How are people going to know about Christ unless we tell them? How will they come to believe in Him unless we prepare the ground for them to receive the Holy Ghost's supernatural gift of faith?

We cannot hope to prepare the ground unless we ourselves are credible witnesses. We bear witness to Christ (among many other ways) by being of genuine service to our fellow citizens, serving them after the pattern of His own compassion and generosity.

We serve our neighbors in order to share with them something of what we ourselves have received; the countless blessings of that infinite charity which the Sacred Heart of Jesus unremittently intends for the whole of mankind.

PRAYER

O God, who willed that your Only Begotten Son should undergo the Cross to save the human race, grant, we pray, that we, who have known His mystery on earth, may merit the grace of His redemption in heaven. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, forever and ever. Amen

After Mass Prayer or Aspiration Prayer
"Jesus, for love of Thee, with Thee & for Thee."

We gladly welcome visitors and newcomers.

At the same time, we respectfully remind you that to receive Our Lord in Holy Communion, one must be:

A baptized Catholic free from any mortal sin committed since one's last Confession.

Fasting for three hours from any food and/or alcoholic beverage.

One hour from any other beverage except water.

DRESS POLICY ~ If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes of Vatican II in the Church, few parishes have had any kind of dress code: we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of respect for the True Presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and for the edification of our neighbor, we kindly request that all who come to our parish observe the basic traditional Catholic standards of dress for church attendance and to receive communion at the communion rail:

Women and girls must cover their heads. (Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan or purchase in the vestibule.)

Women and girls must wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting. Slacks, jeans, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing, and dresses or skirts with long slits above the knees are not permitted.

It is recommended for men and boys to wear suit coats and ties for Sunday Mass.

Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at church.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Today there will be a special collection to support the Mater Dei Seminary in Omaha, where both Fr. Molina and Fr. Ellis were ordained. If writing a check, kindly make it payable to Mater Dei Seminary.
- The Altar & Rosary Society will hold their monthly meeting on Saturday, September 6th after the 9 AM Mass. All are welcome and your questions can be answered by Altar & Rosary Society members who are available to greet you in the cry room at the back of the church, following this Mass today.
- On Sunday September 7th ballots will be available to name the church hall!
- Following Mass, visit with your fellow Catholics in the church hall where light refreshments are available.
- Join parishioners every Tuesday at 3:00 PM in the church to recite fifteen decades of the rosary. Our intentions are to ask God and his Blessed Mother for their protection of our country and our church against the force which is trying to destroy us.
- In your kindness, remember to pray for those listed on the Memorial Page, and all deceased members of the chapel. Remember also those in the parish who are ill, troubled or suffer silently in pain.
- New to the Tridentine Mass, you may find the grey or green paperback missals found in the pews helpful in following the Mass.
- The church website is updated frequently and reflects all upcoming events and Mass times.
- You are strongly encouraged to visit the website at <https://holyfamilytc.org> and REGISTER as a MEMBER in the NEW DATABASE as this will be the only way to receive emails regarding important church events, etc.

Join The Altar & Rosary Society ~ Meetings are held the first Saturday of the month except during the summer.
NEXT MEETING IS SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 2025

You may be asking yourself, “What is the Altar & Rosary Society, and what are my responsibilities as a member?”

The purpose of the A&R Society is to cultivate and promote a greater devotion to

Our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar through Our Lady as Queen of the Most Holy Rosary; likewise, to employ ways and means to secure the adornment of the sanctuary of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

All are welcome and your questions can be answered by Altar & Rosary Society members who are available to greet you in the cry room at the back of the church, following this Mass today.

Name the Church Hall

On September 7th pencils and ballots will be handed out to name our church hall!

The three suggestions listed are all relevant to our church.

- 1) Mary Help of Christians – this feast day is the date of the 1st Mass said at Holy Family on May 24, 1981.
- 2) Saints John & Paul – this feast day is the date of the 1st Mass said at our physical location on June 26, 1994.
- 3) Pius XII – the last true pope before Vatican II

There is also a blank space if you'd like to write in a suggestion.

Weekly Catechism taken from Baltimore Catechism III, by Rev. Francis J. Connell

What is the Sacrament of Penance?

Penance is the sacrament instituted by Our Divine Savior in which sins committed after Baptism are forgiven through the absolution of the priest. The sacrament of Penance raises the soul from death to supernatural life.

With what words does the priest forgive sins?

The priest forgives sins with the words: “I absolve thee from thy sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.” The power to forgive sins is given to the priest at his ordination.

What are the effects of the sacrament of Penance, worthily received?

First, the restoration or increase of sanctifying grace; second, the forgiveness of sins; third, the remission of both temporal and eternal punishment (if necessary), due to our sins; fourth, the help to avoid sin in the future; fifth, the restoration of the merits of our good works if they have been lost by mortal sin.

What else does the sacrament of Penance do for us?

Penance also gives us the opportunity to receive spiritual advice and instruction from our confessor.

What must we do to receive the sacrament of Penance worthily?

We must: first, examine our conscience; second, be sorry for our sins; third, have the firm purpose of not sinning again; fourth, confess our sins to the priest; fifth, be willing to perform the penance the priest gives us.

What should we do before our examination of conscience?

We should ask God's help to know our sins and to confess them with sincere sorrow.

What is an examination of conscience?

It is a sincere effort to call to mind all the sins we have committed since our last worthy confession. We make a good examination of conscience by reviewing the commandments of God, and of the Church, and the particular duties of our state of life, and by asking ourselves how we may have sinned regarding them.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
